Plan To Speed Preparations At Shenango Plant

Expect Hudson Motor Car Company Workmen Here In Short Time

STEEL SHEETS TO BE PRODUCED

Within a short time, perhaps a matter of days, workmen of the Hudson Motor Car Company are expected to be in the former Shenango tin plate plant, getting the plant ready for occupancy by the motor company.

On Wednesday it was announced from Washington that the company had leased two thirds of the giant plant, for the production of steel sheets to be used in the automobile industry. Two thirds of the plant means approximately 425,000 square feet. The company leased the plant from the War Assets Administration.

Old Hot Mill Side
The Hudson Motor Car Company will use two of the units of the plant. The largest one is that facing and running parallel with Mahoning Avenue and known to New Castle people as the "hot mill side." It was this unit where the furnaces, rolls and shears were located when the plant was used to produce tin plate. The unit is about 1600 feet long. The company will also use the second unit where the annealing equipment was once located. The office building is included in the new Hudson property.

The company plans to fence in the two units it will use, it is said, thus dividing its properties from the other units which are expected to be used for multiple tenancy for small plants.

Definite plans for the operation are not yet made public but it is understood the company will purchase steel billets and then roll them into sheets. Whether the (Continued on Page Two)

Thomas Robb of Hillsville was successful in bagging a Y-point buck, weighing 123 pounds, while hunting December 4 in Warren county.

It was three years ago today that the memorable snows of the winter of 1944-45 started, it will be recalled. Light snow was noted here during the night, but no heavy snow was indicated.

Downtown intersections were extra greasy Wednesday evening and this morning, made so by a light snow that had fallen. Cinders were being applied in spots to enable motorists to stop more quickly when traffic lights changed.

The illuminated Christmas trees on the Public Square presented a very pleasant appearance in the downtown section of the city last night. The trees which were lighted for the first time since their erection, instead of being in the center of the square, they are adorning the east and west ends of the Diamond.

Lawrence county is rapidly becoming deer country. Albert Leasure of the West Side, is another of those hunters who caught a deer nearly in his back yard. In 20 minutes of hunting last evening, he shot a 150 pound 5 point buck, just off West Washington street extension near Winter Lane. Mr. Leasure was hunting alone when he sighted the deer. His shot hit the heart dropping the animal in 100 feet.

Snow And Colder Forecast Tonight As Winter Arrives

(International News Service)

Winter really arrived in western Pennsylvania today. Snow, icy highways and colder weather—and no promise of relief—brought the season's first real wintry touch to the area last night and early today.

Temperatures were below freezing throughout the western half of the state last night as a mid-western cold front moved east.

A wet snow that fell late yesterday afternoon froze as it hit highways and made driving hazardous in many sections.

More snow and colder weather was forecast for tonight.

Arab Invaders Of Synagogue Are Driven Out

Four-Hour Battle Against Arab Invaders Of Jerusalem Synagogue

AT LEAST FIVE MORE ARE SLAIN

By BENN FELLER (U. S. Staff Correspondent)

JERUSALEM, Dec. 11.—British troops and Jewish Haganah militiamen joined today in a four-hour battle against Arab "invaders" who occupied a Jerusalem synagogue.

At least five more persons, four of them Arabs, were slain and six others wounded this morning as Arab-Jewish communal violence continued in various parts of Palestine.

The Jew who was slain died in a gun battle with a sentry outside the British hospital in Haifa, where a series of loud explosions in the area around a munitions dump and military barracks ushered in that port city's sixth straight day of violence.

Four Jewish raiders reportedly opened fire on the sentry, who promptly returned the fire. The other three assailants escaped.

Fearful Middle East Disorders Threatening Marshall Plan Success

By JOHN A. REICHMANN (U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—Responsible United States officials believe that disorders in the Middle East are endangering success of the Marshall plan for European reconstruction.

Those close to the situation expressed the opinion today that, were a holy war to flare up in the great Arab world, essential resources of oil from the Middle East would be foreclosed to the rest of the universe.

In view of the growing reliance of the world on petroleum as a form of fuel and energy, the oil aspect of the Marshall plan is regarded by many as so great that its availability may determine the success or failure of the plan.

No Exact Figure

No exact figure is available on the amount of oil Europe will need from the Middle East in order to carry out the plan. But the Paris report prepared by the 16-nation committee planning to join in the project pointed out that the only important sources today are North and South America and the Middle East.

It also notes that, while once the world's chief source of supply, (Continued on Page Two)

Plan Is Sought To End Big Four Parley In London

By KINGSBURY SMITH (International News Service)

LONDON, Dec. 11.—Observers at the council of foreign ministers in London believe that the western powers are now faced with the difficult task of getting Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov to "stop talking and go home."

Many London observers feel that the United States, British and French delegations want the conference to end.

It is said that they frankly don't trust the Soviet government, and doubt that a sound basis for a four-power agreement on Germany can be found at this time.

American officials particularly, are said to be eager to get going with plans for the development of Germany's industrial Ruhr as part of the Marshall plan.

All three western delegations are reportedly convinced that Molotov (Continued on Page Two)

General Strike Called In Rome

Police Break Up Demonstrations In Front Of Foreign Office

ABOUT 600,000 ARE REPORTED AFFECTED

By MICHAEL CHINIGO (U. S. Staff Correspondent)

ROME, Dec. 11.—Police went into action with clubs and broke up several noisy demonstrations in front of the Italian foreign office in Rome today at the start of a city-wide general strike which made idle 600 thousand workers.

A group of 2,000 demonstrators first was dispersed. But half of the crowd reformed and police in jeeps rushed the strikers, swinging their clubs freely. A number of persons suffered injuries and several arrests were made.

Arrest 36

Thirty-six alleged Communist agitators had been arrested by an early hour this afternoon. Labor representatives protested to the cabinet over the arrests.

The labor union executive issued a warning to strikers not to assemble in public places and stage no demonstrations but to remain ready in case called upon "for action."

Giuseppe Di Vittorio, leader of the Italian Confederation of Labor, was optimistic. During a pause in conferences with cabinet officials, Di Vittorio said:

"We are heading toward a favorable phase for termination of the strike and a solution for alleviating the situation."

What Jameson Memorial Expansion Plan Provides

Briefly, here's what is planned in the Jameson Memorial hospital $750,000 expansion fund program, as outlined at the opening dinner of the advance gifts and industrial divisions Wednesday night.

1—A new four-story wing, to be built at the rear of the present building, along Garfield avenue, and running parallel to the main unit of the hospital.

2—Seventy-five additional patient beds, which will bring the total bed capacity of the hospital to 229, answering to a large extent Lawrence County's hospital bed shortage.

3—New emergency department, located on the first floor (the present emergency department is on the fifth floor) and completely equipped to handle emergency cases. Included will be facilities for out-patient clinic work, which often can prevent the need for hospitalization.

4—Beds for isolation cases, which will permit the hospital to treat patients with contagious diseases without fear of communication to other patients.

5—Orthopedic operating room, to be located on the fifth floor of the present building, adjacent to the surgical department. Here fractures and other bone conditions can be given proper up-to-date treatment.

6—Enlarge service facilities, including kitchen, laundry, and boiler room, all of which must be relocated and expanded to handle the increased patient load.

Four Gifts To Hospital Fund Total $140,000

Announced At First Meeting Of Jameson Memorial Hospital Campaign

LAUNCH DRIVE TO RAISE $750,000 FUND

Four pace-setting gifts totaling $140,000, without precedent in New Castle history, were disclosed Wednesday night as more than 100 workers in the advance gifts and industrial divisions of the Jameson Memorial hospital expansion fund campaign officially opened the first phase of the appeal at a meeting in The Castleton hotel.

Shenango Pottery Co., subscribed $75,000.

Universal Sanitary Manufacturing Co., subscribed $20,000.

Substantial personal subscriptions were made by Campaign Chairman Alex Crawford Hoyt and P. J. Flaherty.

Mr. Hoyt contributed $30,000 and Mr. Flaherty $15,000.

These four gifts, received prior to the beginning of actual solicitation, represent almost 19 per cent of the campaign goal of $750,000.

Hailed As Pace-Setters

They were hailed as pace-setters for industry and individuals in the greatest project of its kind in Lawrence County's long history.

They leave $610,000 to be raised to assure the county of adequate hospital protection by the addition of a new wing and 75 beds at Jameson.

Individuals and business firms able to give in the upper brackets will be solicited by advance gifts workers. Included are the hospital board of directors and medical staff.

Robert H. Cunningham and H. L. Gordon are co-chairmen of the advance gifts division.

Judge Braham Speaks

A rousing ovation was given the announcement of the kick-off gifts by the 140 representative citizens who crowded The Castleton ballroom and heard the Hon. W. Walter Braham declare that in no other institution is the American spirit reflected to the degree that it is in our hospitals.

"It is easy to take a hospital for granted—until you need it. And then it looms up in all its scientific impressiveness as a refuge and a sanctuary impossible to do without," Judge Braham said.

Convicted Ohio Slayer Facing Electric Chair

Lester Nichols Convicted Of Killing Father-In-Law; Jury Fails To Give Mercy

LIMA, O., Dec. 11.—(INS)—Death in Ohio's electric chair faced Lester Nichols today as the possible penalty for his conviction for the slaying of his father-in-law.

An Allen county common pleas court jury concluded six hours of deliberations at 9:55 last night when it returned a verdict that Nichols was guilty of first-degree murder. It did not recommend mercy.

Sentence has not been passed yet.

Killed Father-In-Law

The 42-year-old resident of Silver Lake, Ind., had been charged with fatally shooting his father-in-law, the Rev. Lewis Whitaker, at the latter's home in nearby West Newton last May 6. The slaying took place when the minister interceded to protect his daughter, Mrs. Nora Nichols, 44, from her estranged husband. Nichols was seriously wounded in the shooting.

The jury retired at 3:55 yesterday afternoon after the defense rested its case without presentation of a single witness. The state started presentation of its case Monday following a week-long effort to seat a jury. The trial opened Dec. 1.

is deliberately stalling in order to delay as long as possible the economic unification of western Germany. Thus, he hopes to prevent the implementation of the Marshall plan.

The attitude of the western ministers was bluntly stated yesterday by Secretary Marshall, when he said:

"We are wasting time when there is no time to waste."

The difficulty appears to be that neither Marshall, nor British Foreign Secretary Bevin, nor French Foreign Minister Bidault want to assume the responsibility of breaking up the conference without good justification.

To Avoid Showdown
Molotov is obviously aware of this fact and is using every tactic in the diplomatic book to avoid a final showdown on basic issues.

Each time the westerners try to corner him he adroitly slips out of a tight spot or makes what appears on the surface to be an important concession.

The western delegations are said to be getting increasingly suspicious of these concessions. They now consider them designed merely to prolong the conference.

Whether Molotov will actually give way sufficiently to enable agreement, remains to be seen, but the western delegations consider it highly improbable.

FEARFUL MIDDLE EAST DISORDERS THREATEN PLAN

The United States now is a net importing nation of petroleum and its products.

The Paris report notes specifically that the long-range Marshall plan provides for a great increase in refining capacity in Europe proper. This, it says, "is a reflection on the probable coming changes in the world oil supply position and of an increase of availability of the Middle East."

It added that this probably would be reflected in a tendency for the supplies from North and South America to decrease.

Want Huge Amount

The detailed report estimates that the 16 participating countries and western Germany will want 390,368,000 barrels of petroleum products in 1948, 432,819,000 barrels in 1949; 472,547,000 barrels in 1950 and 501,513,000 barrels in 1951.

Reliance on the Middle East is emphasized by the fact that this is the closest source of oil for Europe. Much of it moves now over the oil pipeline from the rich fields of northern Iraq to the Mediterranean port of Haifa in Palestine. Another large share is produced from the facilities of the Arabian-American Oil company in Saudi Arabia.

Both are extremely vulnerable—the former especially so since it moves by pipeline through Iraq, Syria and Palestine, where the disturbances promise to become the worst. Many experts believe that, should open warfare break out these sources would be completely closed.

However, others argue that, since oil would be a chief source of revenue to the Arab armies and King Ibn Saud has promised to devote all his resources to the war against Palestine, partition, he might keep the supply moving from his domain.

More Amendments
Only a few more amendments of importance remain to be considered before the final vote is taken, with passage of the measure assured by an overwhelming margin. Two of the amendments, by Reps. Bender (R) Ohio and Marcantonio (A. L.) N. Y., would turn administration of the relief program over to the United Nations. A similar amendment was rejected by the senate.

In anticipation of house passage, the Senate appointed conferees to meet with the House conferees and iron out a bill that will be acceptable to both chambers. The senate named Sen. Vandenberg (R) Mich., Capper (R) Kans., White (R) Maine, Connally (D) Tex. and George (D) Ga.

old city, where they hoisted the Moslem crescent over the abandoned synagogue.

Haganah forces attracted by the sight of the Arab flag fluttering over the temple launched an attack.

British troops and police were rushed to the scene, near the Jaffa gate, and joined in efforts tooust the Arabs.

Even after the synagogue was cleared of the Arabs, the battle continued to rage in the vicinity. Arab sources said the fighting lasted for about four hours.

Police closed six of the old city's eight gates as the fight was quelled.

Tense Quiet

Thereupon, the city settled down to a tense quiet, similar to that which has prevailed throughout the Holy Land since yesterday when British authorities threatened to reimpose martial law over trouble areas if communal violence continued.

A Jewish agency spokesman, meanwhile, denounced Lieut. Gen. Sir Alan Cunningham's communication warning of "severe measures" facing both Jews and Arabs if the rioting does not end.

The Jewish spokesman termed the British high commissioner's communication a "patent misrepresentation of the facts," and declared "in no case did the Jewish community initiate attacks upon the Arabs, nor will it in the future."

He further denounced what he termed British "inefficiency" in dealing with the Arab rioters, as well as the continued searches for arms among the Jewish community.

method will be hot or cold reduction is not known. Officials of the company said in Washington, D. C., on Wednesday that upwards of 1,500 employees would be put to work.

Relieve Steel Shortage

The plant property is leased for four years at a yearly rental of $110,000, it is said, with an option to renew the lease at the end of its expiration. Like other automobile companies, Hudson is going into the steel market itself in order to relieve the shortage of steel sheets. Studebaker and Kaiser-Fraser have taken similar steps.

The Shenango tin plate plant was put into operation in 1898 by the Shenango Steel and Iron Company, a local independent concern. About 1900 it was purchased by the American Sheet and Tin Plate Company, a subsidiary of the United States Steel Corporation. In the '30's, the plant became a unit of the Carnegie-Illinois Steel Company. The introduction of strip mills closed the plant for a time but when war first broke out the plant was put back into operation.

The seizure of the Malayan peninsula by the Japs shut off the major supply of tin bar and the plant went down again. When the United States got into the war the plant was taken over by the Aluminum Company of America and used as a heavy forging plant. With the end of the war the plant shut down and has been idle since.

The huge "hot mill side" which is a part of the property Hudson has leased is admirably for the production of steel sheets. It has length and width, plenty of heavy crane service, and height to install any machinery necessary.

Key men from Detroit are expected in New Castle within a few days to get the work started. Old machinery must be moved out and new equipment moved in. It is understood the company has its new machinery ready to ship immediately. It is said the company expects to be rolling sheets within 100 days.

ing unemployment. There is a 90 per cent chance the strike will end tonight."

The government, which up to yesterday had granted two and one-half billion lire for emergency public works appropriated an additional billion today.

Strike Not General

The strike meanwhile was anything but general. The Pirelli tire factory, one of Rome's biggest, continued to work at full efficiency despite the strike order. The storekeepers' association issued a bulletin asking all shops to remain open. Private bus lines operated under police protection.

Massed in Rome's Piazza Colonna, the demonstrators booed and jeered as jeep-loaders of police sped by.

The police quickly swung about and rushed the strikers, whereupon a brief melee ensued until finally the crowd dispersed.

This was the only disturbance reported in early stages of the otherwise orderly strike, called last night by the Communist majority of the labor union's directorate despite government pledges that their demands would be met.

Premier Alcide de Gasperi conferred with Republican leaders in an effort to reshuffle his cabinet, while the ministers of labor, treasury and public works met with labor representatives striking to settle the strike.

Union orders for an orderly strike were being generally obeyed in Rome, though strikers did attempt unsuccessfully to break into the Christian Democrat party headquarters. "Partisans" took over the city hall in Pescara.

"We have enjoyed the benefits of Mr. Jameson's generosity for almost 20 years. Now it is up to us to see that the additional facilities we demand are added to the Jameson Memorial hospital."

"No better example of the heart of America can be found than the hospitals which Americans erect for the care of the sick and suffering of their community, and enlarge as community need requires."

Capt. Rowland Opens Meeting

Captain Roger W. Rowland, president of the Jameson board of directors, opened the meeting after invocation by Rev. F. M. McCarter of St. Mary's church.

In introducing Campaign Chairman Alex Crawford Hoyt, who presided, Captain Rowland expressed the hope that the community will back Mr. Hoyt with 100 per cent support.

"We are fortunate indeed that Mr. Hoyt has consented to undertake this assignment in the interest of community welfare," the board president said.

"It is one of the largest jobs any individual has been called upon to undertake in Lawrence County, and he can only be successful in the undertaking with our united support."

Speaking for the medical staff of Jameson hospital, Dr. Paul H. Wilson pledged the doctors' support. Dr. Wilson, co-chairman with Dr. David L. Perry of the staff committee, promised more than his share from this group.

Mechanics of solicitation were explained at the conclusion of the meeting by A. F. Heck, campaign director, who emphasized that solicitation of advance gifts and industrial prospects must be completed by January 1 in order that the general public phase of the effort can begin at that time.

More than 800 names of prospects in these two divisions were selected by the committee members for personal solicitation. Cards for these prospects will be in the hands of workers by Friday. Mr. Heck announced a house collection will begin immediately.

Other report meetings to follow, all at noon and in the hotel, will be on Friday, December 19; Monday, December 22; and Monday, December 29. Final report will be made on Wednesday, December 31.

The importance of contacting prospects at once was pointed out to the workers. All were urged to attend report meetings.

Need For Expansion

Judge Braham reviewed the need for expansion of Jameson hospital, and outlined expansion plans and outlined expansion plans and outlined expansion plans.

"Lack of beds and facilities has reached the critical stage. The hospital cannot meet the unprecedented demands of the people it serves, and this poses a problem not only for the board of directors, the administrator, and the doctors and nurses, but also—and most important—for the people of this area," he said.

"When you or a member of your family need a hospital bed, you need it right away. You don't want excuses and explanations. You want medical and nursing care in the surroundings where they can best be administered."

"But, unfortunately, you cannot always be sure of that today. In all probability some of you—or your friends or relatives—have had the experience of being denied admittance to the hospital because all available space was filled."

"This situation does not exist at Jameson Memorial hospital alone, but also at the other hospitals in this area, and hospitals all over the country. And it is not a condition brought on by war or postwar prosperity. Authorities estimate that the demand for hospital care will continue to increase."

"How thankful we can be that, in the face of these conditions, we have had no community catastrophe involving a large number of people—for we would be absolutely helpless, with no place to care for the victims. Then we would see human suffering and human want on a large scale."

In concluding his talk, Judge Braham said, "Our new building is very nice to talk about, but there is still the important matter of getting bricks and mortar, steel and glass, and expensive scientific equipment—and converting them into this much-needed building."

"That takes money. And it is our job—yours and mine and that of every other civic-minded person in the community—to raise the $750,000 we must have. The need is great, but the money is here. Let's start tonight and see this effort through to a victorious conclusion."

food commodities during 1947. The former governor said he received no reply.

The Republican presidential aspirant blamed current high prices on six major "derelictions and mistakes of the present national administration," including the charge of "profiteering."

Stassen said the administration failed to use the power of export controls properly; hoarded scarce commodities; and ended controls too quickly and suddenly by the president's veto of the first OPA Extension Law.

He added: "I charge that the president misled American labor in his post-war addresses claiming that wages could be raised without higher prices and thereby set off a heavy round of strikes with the vital loss of production and increased inflation."

locomotive was hurled on top of the other by the impact, and several cars burst into flames.

Five cars of the southbound No. 3 train and three cars of the northbound No. 6 train were demolished, and the debris was still burning six hours after the crash.

The remaining 13 cars, five on the No. 3 and eight on the No. 6, remained on the track and were being re-routed.

Railroad officials said the crash occurred when the No. 3 overran its stop at New Braunfels and was preparing to back into a spur line.

Trainmen, police and volunteer workers were rushed to the scene from New Braunfels and neighboring towns in Comal county to help the injured and comb the wreckage for possible bodies.

Wimodausis Christmas Program Luncheon-Election, Wednesday

One of the most largely attended of the Wimodausis club's monthly luncheon meetings was the annual Christmas luncheon given Wednesday afternoon in the dining room of the Scottish Rite Cathedral when nearly 400 members found places shortly after 1 o'clock at ten long tables.

On the stage a lighted Christmas tree was the feature of the setting for the annual event. Overhead garlands of green and white roping formed a canopy with large crepe paper bells at intervals and in the center, suspended from the ceiling, a revolving multi-faceted silver bell gave off twinkling reflections. On each table were miniature red or green trees trimmed with silver icicles at either end and red candles at intervals.

Before taking their seats guests sang two carols with Mrs. Ben Newman leading the singing and Mrs. M. M. Ingham at the piano. Mrs. Roy A. Long gave the invocation.

Shortly after 1 o'clock a delicious turkey dinner was served.

Hostesses were Mrs. H. L. McFeaters, Mrs. W. H. Hood, Mrs. William A. Jenkins and Mrs. Maurice A. Boyd.

As dessert was served, Santa Claus, impersonated by DeLace Cole, with a jingle of sleighbells, dashed onto the stage, extended the season's greetings and wished everyone a "Merry Christmas." Then he led the group in singing two choruses of "Jingle Bells" with Mrs. Ingham at the piano.

He first presented gifts to Mrs. W. H. Hood and one to Mrs. Walter Gilmore. He then handed a package wrapped in either red or green to each of the ladies present.

Following luncheon the membership adjourned to the east lodge room for a business meeting marked by election of officers. There another lighted Christmas tree was set up.

Following prayer and salute to the flag led by Mrs. Lena Gilmore, election resulted as follows: president, Mrs. Lena Gilmore; first vice president, Mrs. Maurice A. Boyd; second vice president, Mrs. Roy Warnock; financial secretary, Mrs. Warren Broadbent; recording secretary, Mrs. W. A. Stritmatter; treasurer, Mrs. George Lyon; board members Mrs. Frank Woods, Mrs. Harry McFeaters and Mrs. W. H. Jenkins.

During business, the club voted $500 to the Jameson Memorial hospital special building fund. It also voted to give turkeys to the Almira Home for Christmas, a gift of money to the Neighborhood House as a holiday gift and a donation to be used to purchase clothing for the Margaret Henry Home children.

Next meeting will be January 14 at the Cathedral.

At Mrs. Kearns' home a gift exchange was carried out and an informal social time enjoyed.

Refreshments were served with Mrs. Harriet Landers of Tionesta, the hostess' daughter, and her sister, Mrs. Mary Lewis, as aides.

Each of the members was presented with a token of remembrance sent from Washington, D. C., by the hostess' son, Congressman Carroll D. Kearns.

School Is Turning Out Educated Bartenders

By RUTH BRIGHAM
(N. S. Staff Correspondent)

MIAMI, Dec. 11.—What this country needs today is an educated bartender, in the opinion, apparently, of your Uncle Sam.

The old man with the whiskers has been footing the bills nearly two years now for veterans at the Florida School of Mixology.

Several hundred Vets—from privates to a lieutenant general—have attended the school under the GI Bill of Rights.

The Anti-Saloon League has recently opened a drive against the use of federal funds for bartenders' schools.

Students' Latin and Greek may not improve any during the four weeks strenuous course, but when through they have mastered the art of loosening the tongue in 120 different flavors.

Nathan Deitelbaum, director of the school, who sold the board of education and hence the federal government on the idea, reports such success that plans are under way to open branches throughout the country. The first will soon appear in New York City.

Only One Of Kind
Former GI's from all over the nation and Latin allies have taken courses at the Miami school, believed to be the only one of its kind.

I attended a five-hour session one day and came out groggy—without sampling a single drink. But such cocktail shaking I never heard. Imagine 20 or 30 shakers going at once.

Head instructor at the school is Lieut. Col. William A. Fulmer, RET., who has had 20 years' experience in the art of mixology—not to mention service in two world wars. In the last he was an instructor in mathematics and military law.

Today he stands in the center of the "class room," pipe in hand, directing and offering such suggestions as:

"You must get a high collar on that drink, boys."

No Mean Task

Bartending is no mean task these days, as the world becomes smaller and smaller. No bartender can be an isolationist today. He must know how to mix the favorite drink of patrons from New Orleans to Potsdam.

Deitelbaum says there are 75 basic drinks, with variations reaching 120—requirements for graduation from the school.

Hardest thing for the students is not learning which of the 35 different glasses to use, but memorizing ingredients for the 120 drinks. They work with various colored waters, rather than real liquor.

Only two drinks require the real stuff for practice. They are Pousse Cafe and Brandy Float.

Pousse Cafe (around $2.50 a drink) is made of five liqueurs, each a different color and weight, one on top of the other, layer-wise. It's a matter of gravity, a requirement which water doesn't meet.

Partially Disabled Vets Can Still Enlist

Deadline On Enlistment Period For Combat Wounded Men Will Occur Last Of Month

M-Sgt. Charles P. Walsh of the local US army and US air force recruiting station announces that the deadline of December 30 draws near for enlistment and assignment of partially disabled combat wounded veterans of World War II.

Under the provisions of current war department regulations enlistments in the regular army of partially disabled combat veterans of World War II who possess or are trainable in certain critically needed skills and who meet eligibility requirements with the exception of their respect combat wounds, are authorized, if application is made prior to December 30, 1947. Enlistment under these provisions is in the grade held at time of discharge.

All partially disabled combat wounded veterans discharged subsequent to December 30, 1947, will be eligible to re-enlist in grade, if application is made within 20 days from date of discharge.

For further information concerning this subject visit your local US army and US air force recruiting station located in room 202, Post Office building, or phone 7593, New Castle.

Men Agree Women Lead Harder Lives

NEW YORK.—(INS)—A woman's life is harder than a man's and, surprisingly, more males subscribe to that view than do women.

This is revealed by The American Magazine which says that a poll in three populous eastern states, New York, Pennsylvania, and New Jersey, showed 62 per cent think a woman has a harder life than a man. Twenty-five per cent believe the opposite to be true.

But the proportion who think a woman's life is harder was slightly higher among men than among women. Thirteen per cent think men and women have it equally as difficult.

Rural Medical Service Faces Big Expansion

HARRISBURG, Dec. 11.—(INS)—Dr. E. E. Shifferstine, head of the state rheumatic fever program, today said "serious consideration" must be given to expanding rural medical service.

Addressing the meeting of the state rheumatic heart clinic directors at Harrisburg, Shifferstine declared that "lack of medical facilities in rural areas" often deprives children of "the most rudimentary care".

Ten Pennsylvania counties have no hospitals and one has only two doctors, he said.

"Citizens of the rural communities are rightfully demanding the same public health service for their children as is accorded children in urban areas," he asserted.

"We, as public health officers, have the responsibility of seeing that services of the rheumatic heart clinics are made accessible to residents of the more remote sections."

The lay public, particularly parents, must be educated to the danger and menace of rheumatic fever, he said.

"However, we must instill in the hearts and minds of anxious patients not fear but confidence that if their child is found early and properly cared for there is hope," he added.

He disclosed that since the first clinic was opened, 2066 children have been registered for care and diagnosis.

What Grandpa means to say is this:

"WHO in tarnation swiped the bulb out of that hall light? And what makes people bulbsnatch anyhow?"

Light bulbs cost so little nowadays (a fraction of what they did when Grandpa was a boy) that it's easy as pie to keep a reserve supply on hand.

Why put up with all the inconvenience of bulbsnatching? Why risk eyestrain and the possibility of accidents? See your nearest dealer and get a supply of right-size bulbs next time you shop!

Married Teacher Question Placed Before Board

"Should New Castle's school board reverse its position and offer contracts to school teachers who are married?"

This question was asked the New Castle school board Wednesday night by Superintendent Frank L. Burton.

"I realize this board has had a ruling against hiring married women as teachers," said Dr. Burton. "Pittsburgh had a similar ruling but recently changed it. I have been wondering if this board has any idea of changing its rule? I do not expect an answer tonight but merely ask the question that it may be given consideration."

Director A. C. Hyde said that he had not changed his mind about hiring married women as teachers. He is still opposed to the idea.

Dr. Burton also asked if the board had any idea of abandoning its demand that all teachers hired should have degrees. No answer was required of this but Dr. Jackson said "this would be a step backwards it seems to me."

The board approved bills in the amount of $12,373.85 for general purposes and $7595.30 for athletic purposes. The athletic bills included $2182.85 for transportation to Bethlehem, Pa.; $817.15 for meals and other things; and $1510.82 for internal revenue tax for the month of November.

Mrs. Geneva F. Cramer was granted a year's leave of absence to go to Florida with her husband.

PERSONAL MENTION

Miss Marlene Ann Cardella, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Cardella, 1201 Pollock avenue, has been confined to her home with illness for the past three weeks, with an infected gland and ear.

Dr. and Mrs. Vincent Prioletti of South Mill street were pleasantly surprised Wednesday afternoon when the latter's three brothers stopped for a visit while enroute for a business trip to Youngstown. Brothers are Dr. Fred Campana of Monessen, Attorney Edmund C. Campana of Pittsburgh and Monessen and Nicholas Campana, undertaker, of Monongahela.

S. 2-c David J. Copson, of Great Lakes Training school, Chicago, Ill., is enjoying a 10-day leave at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald F. Copson, 134 East Leasure avenue. At the close of his leave S. Copson will be stationed for one week at Great Lakes before being transferred to aviation fundamental school at Jacksonville, Fla., where his brother, S. 1-c Richard Copson, is located.

PROPER USE OF KNIFE

Question: What is the proper use of the table knife? From watching my fellow diners in restaurants I have become a little confused. Perhaps I am wrong and it really is used for manifold purposes.

Answer: No doubt the knife is used for manifold purposes, but correctly it is used for cutting meat and other foods which cannot be managed without it. There is a salad knife for cutting head lettuce and a butter knife for spreading butter on bread and biscuits. There are no other proper table uses for this instrument.

Question: There is always a doubt in my mind about the etiquette of smoking. Should I offer a cigarette to a woman whose reaction to this practice I do not know; or might she, if she condemns the practice think me presumptuous or forward?

Answer: Even though she condemns the practice of smoking, she should not consider your offer of a cigarette forward or a breach of etiquette. If she does not smoke, or even if she disapproves, she should merely politely decline, showing no attitude of reproach.

Question: Please give me information on choice and arrangement of glassware on the table.

Answer: In addition to your drinking glasses, the glassware on your table may now properly include plates and dishes as well as cups, saucers and finger bowls. At "company" dinners always place a stemmed goblet at the right of each plate, at breakfast and luncheon, a water goblet in the same position. For a dinner party, supplement your water goblet with a cocktail glass and one or more wine glasses. If the cocktail is to be served in the living room before dinner, you would, of course, omit cocktail glasses from the dinner table, whereas all glasses should stand in a straight line at the right of the water goblet, somewhat toward the center.

Present your problems to Miss Markel, who will promptly mail personal replies to questions from readers inclosing stamped, self-addressed envelopes.

City Mission Is Making Ready For Christmas

For the past few days, the interior of the City Rescue Mission, 17 South Mercer street, has been a bee hive of activity and will be for several days to come until December 25.

The reason for all the excitement among the staff members and those who have come in to offer their services is to make a number of homes in the city just a little more cheerful over the Christmas season. Many of the homes have members of the family confined to the hospital, while others have loved ones at home sick in bed. With funds being used for medical expenses, little will be left for a happy Christmas.

Making Preparations

The usually quiet and neat looking auditorium of the mission is taking on the appearance of a toy shop and storage depot for Christmas packages. Through the kindness of merchants of the city many toys are being sent in, and as quickly as they arrive, they are given what attention is needed to put them in shape by a competent workman.

From all appearances, one of the best Christmas seasons will be celebrated in the history of the mission if present plans are worked out. It is learned from Superintendent Donald R. Wert. Little round red barks have been distributed to the stores of the city to aid in the work of furnishing toys, clothing and baskets to the city's needy. Plans are shaping up for the annual mission tag day which will be celebrated on December 20, when young ladies will be in the downtown section to accept contributions for the Christmas work.

Decorating Tree

The large mission Christmas tree is being decorated for the annual entertainment which will be presented on Sunday evening, December 21. Mrs. D. R. Wert will be in charge of the program, aided by the mission staff and a group of young ladies from the Swedish Covenant church in Bessemer led by Lydia Carlson.

Requests are being received for articles of clothing, especially in the line of shoes. The demand is greater than the supply and any contribution along this line will be called for if Rev. Wert is notified. Many transients are receiving lodging nightly at the mission. The men are given a hot shower, supper, a warm bed and breakfast. If they are in need of it, clothing is supplied. Many ex-servicemen are among those who are receiving lodging.

Almost daily some family or person is made happy through some phase of the mission activity. The mission sticks to its slogan
"Everlastingly At It".

Plan To Dispose Stephen Foster's Old Home In City

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 11.—(INS)—
City council is planning to dispose of the old Foster Memorial Home in Pittsburgh, once the home of Stephen Collins Foster, famous composer of southern folk songs.

After by-passing the problem for eight months, a resolution authorizing the reverting of the old brick house to the heirs of James H. Park has been introduced.

Councilman Walter R. Demmler, who introduced the resolution, said he has been trying in vain to find some sentiment in Pittsburgh for maintaining the dilapidated structure as a memorial.

There already is a larger Foster memorial on the University of Pittsburgh campus.
Council President Thomas E.
Kilgallen said the place possessed questionable value as a memorial, despite the fact Foster once lived there, as the real birthplace of the composer was purchased by the late Henry Ford and moved to Detroit.

Of Plane Crash

(BULLETIN)

ST. JOHN'S, Newfoundland, Dec. 11.—(INS)—Fate of 29 persons aboard a big Army Air Forces C-54 Skymaster which crashed and burned 8½ miles north of Goose Bay Airfield, Labrador, remained in doubt today.

A helicopter, flown by cargo plane from the Atlantic headquarters of the Air Transport command at Westover, Mass., was reassembled during the night in preparation for a takeoff today.

Army officials said they did not know whether the ground rescue group which went with dog teams to the crash area yesterday had reached the scene.

Last aerial observation placed the party on the south side of Goose river, near the crash area, as darkness fell. Whether they were able to ford the unfrozen stream to reach the plane during the night was not known.

The weather in the Goose Bay area was reported "very bad" during the night.

A "sewing bird" was used by many women in the 1800's. It was a little metal bird (made of britannia metal or silver) with a clamp to attach it to a table with a spring that would open the beak, and a pin-cushion on the back. Charles Waterman of Meriden, Conn., first made them in the 1850's. They were used to hold sewing and were highly endorsed by Godey's Lady's Book.

STOP AND GO

WASHINGTON, D. C.—(INS)—Red and green will be used to mean stop and go in parking as well as at intersections in a new Washington, D. C. traffic marker program. The American Public Works Association reports that the District plans to spend $328,000 during the next five years to standardize traffic and parking signs and make them easier to read.

Under the new plan "no parking" signs will be painted on red backgrounds and "limited parking" signs on green backgrounds.

As a legal expression, "Good behavior" means keeping the peace.

France To Seek 1948 Meetings Of United Nations

By PIERRE J. HUSS
(U. N. Staff Correspondent)

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Dec. 11.—The French government is prepared to make the strongest bid for the 1948 General Assembly and will offer the United Nations an array of facilities considered difficult to match by other candidates.

According to information available at Lake Success, a variety of palaces both at Versailles and in Paris plus the modern Trocadero buildings near the Eiffel tower will be offered for the General Assembly's meeting next September.

Other European capitals in the field for the U. N. meeting include Prague, Geneva, the Hague and Brussels.

The decision will be taken by a nine-nation committee at Lake Success appointed for that purpose by the General Assembly.

Asks For Reports
U. N. Secretary General Trygve Lie already has asked the governments bidding for the assembly meeting to prepare a report on what they have to offer and the reasons they feel their capital should be chosen for the 1948 convention.

An exception to this procedure has been Switzerland, where the government is considered to be lukewarm to any United Nations meetings but has within its borders the second capital of U. N. Switzerland, by virtue of a constitutional clause safeguarding her neutrality, is not a member of the U. N. and on the same grounds has sought no part in international political combinations.

It is the consensus among delegations here that Geneva consequently will fall out quickly as the 1948 assembly meeting place. Few among the delegates give Prague much of a chance, primarily because it is considered behind the iron curtain and as such under too much of a handicap. The Hague is believed to be too small to compete with Brussels and Paris.

The Belgian capital is considered to be the foremost rival of Paris, depending on the length of open-hearted cooperation the thrifty and cautious government of Belgium is willing to extend.

The French government, on the other hand, is known to have circulated all diplomatic missions and is preparing an all-out offensive to get the 1948 General Assembly.

This eagerness is due partially to the government's desire to rebuild the prestige of France as a great power in the eyes of the world and to demonstrate that the current Communist instigations are of no lasting danger to the historic stability of Republican France.

Democrats Have Meeting Here On Wednesday Night

Democrats from Beaver, Butler, Mercer and Venango counties joined with Lawrence County Democrats in The Castleton hotel Wednesday night to form a chapter of the recently organized Democratic Society of Pennsylvania. Present to explain the set-up was Joseph J. Yosko, executive director of the state wide society. Yosko said, "The society will strive to study existing laws and determine whether they are good or bad; make available reports on the operation of new laws; issue reports on the administrative operations of government; report political and economic trends at home and abroad; conduct classes and lectures in writing, teaching and public speaking, so as to develop outlets and methods of presentation of public matters; advance, through the dissemination of information, economic security, higher universal living standards, all with the aim of enhancing the value of U. S. Citizenship."

St. Vitus Holy Name Has Election

Holy Name Society of St. Vitus church conducted their election of officers, Wednesday evening, in the church meeting rooms.

Rev. Fr. F. Bertoline, is the spiritual director, and the meeting got underway at 7:30 o'clock.

Officers are: President, Dom Cioffi; vice-president, John P. Prioletti; secretary, William DeCarbo; and treasurer, Nicholas Casalandra.

Council members include: Charles Scaglione, John Coiro, William Ross and Edward Malley.

The average daily accidental death toll in the winter months last year was 294, in the fall 269, in the summer 266, and in the spring 256, the National Safety Council says.

The state department of agriculture reports an estimated tobacco crop in Pennsylvania this year of 61,100,000 pounds.

THE PARENT PROBLEM

indicate the age of the child he had in mind. Normally, the child does not think much about the matter before the age of six or so. If that is what this psychiatrist had in mind we would agree with him: The child should be answered candidly. But what many parents suppose from such vague use of the term "child" is that even the youngest from two to five or six is included.

At Six Or Eight
There certainly is a case against trying to force Santa Claus on the child beyond the age of six or eight, or even at an earlier age if he resists the myth's being treated as real. Therefore, we could promote all the good (including the happiness and stimulation of imagination) from Santa Claus and avoid the probable harm, if we adults thought roughly of the Santa Claus age up to about five or six, and acted accordingly.

Yet I can't see any sense in robbing the very young child of all the happiness that his belief in Santa Claus can afford him, by deliberately destroying Old St. Nick with an atom bomb and imposing on the little tyke the cold, hard, cruel realities of our own unimaginative world.

Dental Hygienist Asked In Schools

Board Hears Request—Other Matters Before School Board Last Night

Dr. J. A. Meehan, representing the Lawrence County Dental Society appeared before the New Castle school board Wednesday night and asked that a dental hygienist be appointed here. The board told Dr. Meehan that it was interested in such an appointment and had included money for it in the budget for the past few years, but that none had been available. It is likely a dental hygienist will be secured for the coming school year.

The board approved a contract with Erie East high school calling for the opening game of the 1948 football season on September 10.

Solicitor Robert L. Wallace gave the board a resume of the recent decision of Superior Court Judge John C. Arnold, concerning the accounting of school monies.

"I cannot understand why Judge Arnold was quoted as having said that athletics in the schools would be impossible under the present law," said Mr. Wallace. "Apparently somebody read the decision who did not understand it."

"The decision merely says that all money collected in the schools must be accounted for in the school board funds. Insofar as athletics go this is exactly what New Castle has been doing for some years. The decision does seem to indicate that all moneys, whether received from athletics, dramatics or other extra-mural activities must be accounted for by the board."

President Howard L. Reynolds made several committee appointments, which include the following: Recreation Board, Earle M. Brookover and Alec Samuels. Athletics, Dr. Al Hoffmaster, chairman, Dr. W. Fulton Jackson and Attorney William D. Cobau. Budget, Daniel B. Woolcock, chairman, and Dr. Wilbur E. Flannery. Buildings and Grounds, Daniel B. Woolcock, chairman, Earl M. Brookover, Dr. Wilbur E. Flannery, Attorney William D. Cobau and Alec Samuels.

President Howard L. Reynolds and Secretary John B. Bechtel were appointed to attend the annual convention of directors and secretaries in Harrisburg February 4-5.

The bond of the Bruce-Merrilees Company for the installation of new flood lights at Taggart Stadium was approved.

Three protests and an approval were received by the board in the matter of religious education upon released time. The Catholic Forum, Temple Israel and Tifereth Israel presented protests against the idea, and the New Castle Sabbath School Superintendent's Association endorsed it.

The board adjourned to meet again on December 17 for the purpose of considering plans for the proposed addition to the senior high school.

difficult with its Socialism. It all strengthens my belief that Senator Lodge was very right in his objection to the United States joining the League of Nations. But F. D. R. was determined to be a good neighbor to the peoples of the world. It was he who perfected the idea of the United Nations. It was he who caused our government to recognize the Soviet as a going institution.

"Loosing Dogs Of War"
There are some historians who talk a great deal about "loosing the dogs of war" and it has been a favorite language in the Departments of State of the nations of the world when they say, when any hostile head is raised in any other nation, "this country views with alarm" the action of such and such a nation. Well, we certainly view with alarm the actions of Stalin, Molotov and especially Vishinsky's verbal attacks upon the United States and particularly the use of the veto by the Soviets.

If anything, it should cause the people of this nation to rise up in their might and say in a perfectly United States, being compelled to finance the whole world, withdraw now and forever from any combination and henceforth we intend to go it alone.

Begin Campaign To Find Rheumatic Fever Cases In State

HARRISBURG, Dec. 11.—An intensive campaign to search out every case of rheumatic fever in the state is being launched by The Medical Society of the State of Pennsylvania through its Committee to Study Control of Rheumatic Fever.

"Rheumatic fever, one of the most crippling diseases among children, is reportable to the health authorities," declared Dr. Andrew B. Fuller, of Pittsburgh, chairman of the committee, "and we are calling on all doctors throughout the state to check carefully and register all such cases."

"Each of the 60 county medical societies in the state has been asked to set up rheumatic fever committees with two objectives," added Dr. Fuller. "First we want them to find rheumatic fever cases. Second, we want them to educate the public against this insidious disease which is more prevalent and serious than is generally known. Much of heart disease in later life is a result of rheumatic fever in childhood. More than one out of every 20 patients in children's hospitals are victims of rheumatic fever and there are many more undiscovered and untreated cases."

"Five rheumatic fever clinics are being added to the six already existing in Pennsylvania under the direction of the Rheumatic Fever Control program of the State Department of Health," said Dr. Fuller. "These new clinics will be located in Bradford, Scranton, Pottsville, New Castle, and Lewistown. Clinics have been in operation in Sayre, Williamsport, Wilkes-Barre, Allentown, West Chester, Harrisburg, and Altoona. These Rheumatic Fever clinics are all staffed by members of our society."

It is claimed that a single pound of the finest spider webs could be stretched around the world.

Bohlen May Be Given New Post

May Be Named In Charge Of Public Affairs Division

OTHER NEWS OF NATIONAL AFFAIRS

(Special To Central Press)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—Charles P. Bohlen, the State department's counselor and expert on Russia, is being touted as the man to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of William Benton, who was in charge of the public affairs division.

The post is still open and general dissatisfaction is being shown with the department's public relations at a time when public information on international affairs is most needed.

The situation reached its height during the Marshall Plan formulation and was in part due to the fact that a plan had not been devised in detail.

Correspondents, accordingly, could not get the answers to certain detailed questions on matters where details had not yet been officially agreed upon.

Michael McDermott, who is press adviser to the secretary of state and an able and experienced public relations man in the department, has upon occasion acted as spokesman at news conferences. However, he is away most of the time with Marshall.

Bohlen is in intimate contact with the department's minute-by-minute developments and is often relied on by Marshall to determine when information on international developments may be made public.

His weakness, though, like that of McDermott's, is that Bohlen, too, is in demand at international conferences, especially since he acts as translator for Marshall whenever Russian is spoken.

Inside Russia

The Soviet Union is getting "movie minded." At least, that's what the Russian propaganda magazine, Soviet Embassy Bulletin, says.

Tucked away in a corner of the booklet, published in Washington as the Soviet's official propaganda organ, is a paragraph which says that 5,000 new "cinemas" are to be established in the rural areas of the USSR.

Three thousand of these will be mobile theaters. By the end of the year, the Bulletin claims, farm communities in Russia will have nearly 16,000 moving picture theaters. This, it is pointed out, is a gain of 1,000 since prewar days.

Furthermore, the Bulletin says, a new radio factory is just about completed where "scores of thousands of five-tube sets" will be produced annually.

New Big Stick?

The authoritative Marine Corps Gazette says that five out of every six dollars the government spends on scientific projects is being spent on war research.

The publication declares that total research expenditures for the fiscal year are nearly $24 million dollars—$20 million of it marked for war.

Says the Gazette: "Hundreds of millions of dollars are being spent on preparation for possible war in the atmosphere, war involving super speeds and war in arctic cold."

Coupling the war research layout with disclosure of the new super-secret atom testing station on Eniwetok Island, Washington observers see further evidence that the United States is following more and more closely Teddy Roosevelt's old policy of "Speak softly, but carry a big stick."

People's Choice

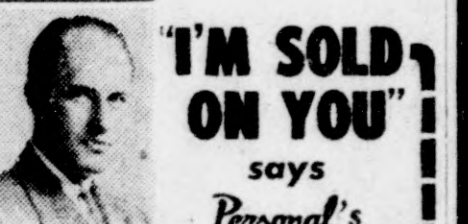

Any recent doubts about Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's popularity might have been resolved at the National Press club in Washington recently.

"Ike" presented medals to 10 war correspondents. The papers made only brief note of the unpunctuated ceremony. However, long before the general's scheduled arrival at the club, long queues began forming. When his car drew up, Ike had to walk between cheering columns gathered on Washington's busiest downtown corner.

The crowd even extended inside the building, jamming the stairs to the second floor. One watching newsmen said: "If he's ever going to announce for president, he ought to do it now."

AMNESTY IS URGED FOR ARMY CONVICTS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—President Truman was asked to free members of the armed forces who were convicted by court-martial and imprisoned for minor offenses during the war.

In a letter to the president, requesting amnesty for these "many hundreds of young men," Senator William E. Jenner (R., Ind.) said the action might save many of them from becoming hardened criminals.

His request applied only to those with good prison records. "In my opinion," he wrote, "special consideration should be given these young men who were inducted into service at an early age and placed in surroundings entirely foreign to their ordinary course of life. Many of these offenses were committed by men suffering from battle fatigue, from shell shock or for other reasons.

Malnutrition Is Great Cause Of Deaths In U. S.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 11. — (INS) — Malnutrition caused by misplaced calories was declared today to cause more deaths in the United States than any known disease. Dr. Robert S. Goodheart, director of the National Vitamin Foundation, warned a dietitians' meeting in Philadelphia that Americans are eating too much of the wrong foods. "There are too many fat women in this country," Dr. Goodheart said. He asserted persons past 25 would live longer and feel better if they were 10 per cent underweight.

Assails Program To Supply Europe For Own Currency

Congressman Charges U. S. Would Be Paid In Almost Worthless Currency

By SAM FOGG (U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—Rep. Crawford (R) Mich., charged today that plans are underway to create a government agency which would furnish American supplies to foreign nations for almost worthless currency.

Crawford said that the plan contemplates sending surplus agricultural goods abroad in return for foreign currency "with practically no standing in international trading marts."

The Michigan congressman, a former member of the House Banking and Currency Committee, asserted that a special federal agency would have to be established to handle the transactions. He contended that the proposal would necessitate the blocking of foreign currency and close control of its use in this country. Crawford said:

"If such a plan and such an agency comes into being, rigid control of how such foreign currencies are used will be required. The agency would not only determine whether such currencies would be used but also for what they would be used."

Crawford charged that the contemplated move was an effort to bypass the Bretton Woods agreements on stabilizing world currencies. He asserted that "too many shortcuts are being advocated" and contended that the proposal is being backed by "the forces which are behind the present relief bill and the Marshall plan."

Crawford said the plan is being mapped in detail in conjunction with the Marshall plan. He remarked:

"Very detailed plans for such a program already are being discussed in Capitol Hill and in the executive departments of the government."

Crawford declared its advocates would attempt to "sell" the plan to Congress on grounds that it would assist materially farmers in individual congressmen's districts. He commented:

"They'll seek to convince southern congressmen that peanut and tobacco raisers in their districts will benefit and will use the same argument of section interests for those in the west and north."

Christmas Funds In Pennsylvania Total $91,700,000

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 11. — (INS) — Christmas Club members in Pennsylvania have received a total of $91,700,000 from banks and savings institutions in the commonwealth.

The Western Saving Fund society in Philadelphia paid out the largest yuletide fund in the state—$2,700,000 to 28,000 club members. First National Bank of Conshohocken disbursed $300,000 to 3600 members, it was announced. Throughout the nation, an estimated $747,000,000 went to Christmas Club subscribers, an all-time high for the 37-year-old savings program.

Jobless Payments Show Big Increase

HARRISBURG, Dec. 11.—(INS) — State Treasurer Ramsey S. Black today reported payments to unemployed veterans and jobless Pennsylvanians increased sharply during the week ended December 5.

Unemployed veterans were paid $818,507 during the week, an increase of $306,577 over the preceding week, Black said. Payments to jobless workers totaled $641,896, a $230,414 gain over the previous period, he added.

A mortar vessel was a ship fitted for carrying and operating a mortar. During the Civil war schooners were used as mortar vessels. Mortars are no longer used, high-angle fire being obtained from longer guns, rendering mortar vessels obsolete.

Yuletide Plans
On Capitol HillState Employees Prepare For Observance Of Holiday Season

OTHER NEWS OF

STATE AFFAIRS

HARRISBURG, Dec. 11.—(INS)—Capitol Hill employees, always susceptible to a holiday mood, succumbed early this year to the Christmas spirit. Office "leaders" in a number of departments were busily engaged in organizing traditional turkey, fruit cake and other raffish and passing the hat for Christmas party funds. Celebrating generally gets underway at noon the day before Christmas. Some departments observe the Yuletide with a singing session over punch and cookies. Others go in for more hilarious gatherings with mistletoe and dancing in the halls and heartier luncheon fare. Occasionally a department head digs in for a treat, but ordinarily the party is financed with workers' contributions. Exchange of gifts, grab-bag style, among employees also is part of most department Christmas celebrations.

Then there is usually a ceremony leading up to bestowal of fancier presents upon department chiefs, deputies and bureau heads. They also are underwritten with workers' contributions, generally a specified sum. The hat is out for that already in a number of departments. The rank and file of employees chip in for presents for minor "bosses" who in turn expect to fork over for the big boys. In some departments an ordinary clerk making in the neighborhood of $1,932 a year gets "socked" two or three times, depending upon the generosity of his immediate superior. But the department heads whose salaries range from $10,000 to $12,000 a year and the next level of superiors usually in the $5,000 to $9,000 plus bracket get their gifts. And as far as can be determined, there has never been a request by administrators in recent years to abandon the practice in line with spending resistance pleas voiced by governmental spokesmen in all branches of government.

The Harrisburg GOP defeated but failed to silence John E. Peters, insurgent Republican who sought the mayoralty on the Democratic ticket. The wall paper dealer who based his campaign on a drive to oust racketeers and improve recreational facilities, has formed an organization which he claims will "see to it that city, county and, if necessary, state officials, properly conduct themselves in office." The organization, known as the independent voters league of Harrisburg, claimed a membership of 791 voters. Its immediate goal, Peters said, was to "secure clean elections and civic improvements."

Peters launched the campaign in a radio address denouncing the Dauphin county court for failing to uphold election fraud charges.

A recent Supreme Court decision sustaining the new state law granting unprecedented taxing powers to local governments prompted a fresh volley of criticism by opponents of the act. The chief contention was that the taxing powers would place neighboring communities against each other in stiff competition that might prove ruinous. A uniform state tax on items such as coal, considered by many localities as a good source of revenue, with rebates pro rated among communities was advanced as a solution. Proponents argued that competition could result in maintenance of low tax rates.

The anthracite institute was seeking the answer to a serious cold weather delivery problem—unloading frozen coal. It was a particularly serious one this winter due to the acute coal shortage, the institute said. E. E. Finn, consulting engineer, was assigned a special study to find the answer.

Bar Association
Move Is Opposed

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 11.—(INS)—Attempts to make Pennsylvania attorney eligible to practice in all counties were deplored today by Judge Edward Leroy Van Roden, of Delaware county's orphans court.

Van Roden asserted before the Federal Bar Association that the action would lead to inefficiency, poor legal services for the client and destruction of the integrity of the bar in small counties.

The jurist described the movement as one sponsored by lawyers in "the two big cities, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh." He asserted these attorneys would tend to monopolize profitable work in the small counties.

U. S. To Maintain Military Bases On Panamanian Area

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—(INS)—The state department announced Wednesday an agreement with the Republic of Panama whereby the United States will maintain 14 military bases on Panamanian territory for the defense of the vital Panama canal.

The agreement was signed in Panama by United States Ambassador Frank T. Hines, who went to Panama to negotiate the agreement, and Panamanian Acting Foreign Minister Francisco A. Flores.

The new agreement replaces the accord of May 18, 1942, whereby Panama made 134 areas available in its own national territory for United States use during World War II.

The most important of the 14 sites to be retained is the heavy bomber base established at Rio Hato, 70 miles west of Panama City. This space will be leased for a 10-year period with an option for an additional 10 years.

The remaining 13 sites will be leased for five years and consist principally of "technical" installations essential to safe area navigation.

ANNUAL MEETING HELD WEDNESDAY

Wayne M. Walker of Little Beaver township was elected president of the Lawrence County Agricultural Extension Association at its meeting in the Epworth Methodist church Wednesday, with Dale Currie of Shenango township being named vice president; Mrs. Fred L. Taylor of Pulaski township, secretary, and Harold B. Hoyer of Union township, treasurer.

County Folks Speak

Following the reports of officers, the following subjects were discussed at the morning session: "A stitch in time" (the 4-H kind), Mrs. Paul Adams, Slippery Rock township.

"Lawrence county dairymen improve their herds," J. H. Wilson, Big Beaver township.

"Lunch time at school," Mrs. Ralph Maxwell, Plaingrove township.

"Better feed—more milk from pasture," Harris McClelland, North Beaver township.

"This is the way we bake our biscuits," a demonstration by Carole Frazier and Viola Sickatuse of the Hickory Foods club.

"Raising pigs the 4-H way," William McConahy, Washington township.

"Slip covers, an attractive addition," Mrs. J. A. Young, Hickory township.

"New ideas in the poultry business," Richard Dean, Slippery Rock township.

Following dinner, served by the ladies of the church, the tellers gave the results of the election conducted during the morning, and the extension representatives, Misses Jean Craumer and Emmeline Mehlman, home economics, and John H. Holbert and Lewis C. Dayton, agriculture, were present.

County Group Busy

The highlight of these reports revealed that 220 demonstrations were conducted during the year, with 131 meetings in connection therewith, which were attended by 2,095 persons. In addition, there were 229 other meetings held, which were attended by 5,652.

There were 1,988 office calls and 2,007 telephone calls, along with 605 farm visits. Individual assistance was given 2,587.

Bulletins distributed numbers 1,885 and there were 606 news articles written.

Miss Sara Warren, extension nutrition specialist, discussed "Meat at its best," showing a number of new ways to cook different cuts of meat, and to present them in an attractive way.

J. H. Boyd, extension vegetable specialist of Penn State college, who spent some time in Hawaii, gave an interesting talk on the islands and their importance in food production. His talk was illustrated with colored slides, showing the kind of soil, the types of crops grown and other interesting features.

Harold R. McCulloch, former county agent here, now assistant director of the Penn State Agriculture Extension service, spoke on the outlook for the future in which he reviewed briefly the accomplishments of the past. He pointed out the number of people who are engaged in assisting the farmers of Pennsylvania to produce better crops, conserve land and bring to them the value of proven

BIKE REGULATIONS

MADRID—(INS)—Ancient regulations for bicycle riding as outlined in Spain's famous encyclopedia "Espasa" indicate that a bike trip might have been a rather hazardous undertaking at one time.

It recommends: "When taking a bicycle excursion it is necessary to carry with one a lantern, a pump, an extra tire, a night-gown, stockings and a handkerchief, an undershirt, a revolver and a map. It is advisable also to take along several extra buttons, and to fasten one's watch and money to one's belt, which also will support the pistol or revolver".

State Chapter Of National Security Committee Meets

All Veterans, Civic, Business And Professional Organizations Are Included

HARRISBURG, Dec. 11.—(INS)—A Pennsylvania chapter of the National Security Committee will be organized today at the state capital.

Representatives of more than 50 veterans, civic, business and professional organizations were expected to attend the organizational meeting to be presided over by Col. Jay Cooke, of Philadelphia, a veteran of both world wars.

Stress Military
An announcement issued by Cooke revealed the group's purpose was promotion of a universal military training system through a campaign of information and discussion. An educational program probably will be outlined during the sessions.

Cooke said the group would support "an adequate, integrated policy of national defense" recommended in a report of the President's Advisory Commission on Universal Training.

The parent organization, established in Washington last month, was pledged to a program calling for "scientific research and development, industrial mobilization and stock piling a striking air force, adequate regular forces in being and a central intelligence agency."

Heavy Membership
Member units included the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Disabled American Veterans, Reserve Officers Association, National Guard Association, Armvets and other veterans groups.

Civic agencies allied included the Rotary, Kiwanis, Elks, Eagles, Moose, National Chamber of Commerce and the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Man Jailed In Wharf Killing

Uncle Fires Shot Into Nephew's Body, Sets Fire To Victim; Routed By Police

SAN RAFAEL, Cal., Dec. 11.—(INS)—George Kasolas, 75, occupied a Marin County jail cell in San Rafael today, accused of the gun and torch murder of his nephew in a bizarre episode climaxed by a violent police siege of the aged man's shack.

The victim, Pete Hadzes, 56, long known to boat owners as "Pete the Greek," was burned into charred remains in the weird slaying which yesterday broke the usual calm of Sausalito's waterfront.

Fires Shot, Burns Body
The authorities said Kasolas fired one home-made shotgun slug into his nephew's shoulder, then doused the wounded man with gasoline and turned him into a human funeral pyre.

Then the elderly man, whose wizened figure and mumbled threats have for years been familiar sights and sounds in Sausalito, barricaded himself against a score of peace officers who poured more than a hundred rounds of sub-machine gun fire and tear gas into his shanty.

Police attributed the killing to a feud between the uncle and his nephew, both of whom had been known as "harmless" denizens of Sausalito's wharves on the North Side of the Golden Gate through which the Pacific ocean and San Francisco bay are linked.

The sudden onslaught on Hadzes was witnessed by Oscar Mauden who was at work on a boat nearby. Mauden ran the short block from the wharfside to Sausalito's Main street and summoned the police.

GROVE CITY CAR FOUND
GROVE CITY, Dec. 11.—An automobile stolen from John Turner, high school instructor, has been located in Bellefonte, Pa. State police said they are now seeking Wilbur Hoffman, 15, who is missing from the George Junior Republic School. His home is in Williamsport.

The estimated $200 billion gross output of the United States in 1944 was more than twice the dollar volume of 1940.

Kiwanians Hear Dr. G. S. Bennett

First Christian Church Pastor Gives Impressions Of United Nations At Work

INTEREST SHOWN IN COMMON MAN

New Castle Kiwanis club members heard Dr. G. S. Bennett, pastor of the First Christian church, on Wednesday in a report on his impressions of the United Nations while attending the seminar of the Disciples of Christ at Lake Success early in November.

Dr. Bennett was deeply impressed by the interest shown by the delegates in the plight of the common man, throughout the world, particularly the children who are continuing to suffer from a lack of the necessities of life in many countries. He stated that a motion picture taken by a representative of the United Nations showed conditions in many countries pathetic beyond belief.

He believes that the program of the United Nations is far reaching and that it will eventually be crowned with success, despite the seeming lack of interest on the part of Russia, in those nations which are not her satellites.

He spoke about the background of many of those employed at the United Nations headquarters, most all of whom underwent tremendous hardships during the war, and of their continuing wonder in the greatness of America.

Radio station KDKA farm director, Homer Martz and his technician, Mr. Sloan, visited the East Brook F.F.A. at the high school while on a tour of Lawrence county recently.

Mr. Martz interviewed three F.F.A. boys, Keith McConnell, a freshman; Don Smith, a senior and F.F.A. president; Charles Reiber, a graduate and Keystone Farmer, and their agricultural teacher, Howard F. Fox. All these and Mr. Martz, in making a re-broadcast of his morning broadcast, brought out how the vocational agricultural program trains and helps boys grow into farming.

Lewis C. Dayton, county agricultural agent, accompanied the KDKA party to East Brook.

Fire Losses On Increase, Chief Thomas States

Local Residents Are Urged To Take Adequate Prevention To Prevent Losses

CARELESSNESS IS PRINCIPAL CAUSE

"The rate of fire losses is not only increasing all over the country, it's increasing right here in our own community," warned Fire Chief James E. Thomas. "This shameful waste is leaving its mark on the wealth and happiness of the city."

The fire chief reminded all residents of New Castle that Fire Prevention Week is not the only time to practice fire prevention and protection. "Fires do not have specified times for starting," he said. "The job of preventing them from destroying our homes is a constant one. Residents must always be on the alert for fire hazards, and make carefulness and caution their bywords."

"We find that neglect is an outstanding reason for fires. Equipment that is used to heat and light your homes is subject to wear. When this equipment is corroded or frayed, it has outlived its usefulness, and unless it is repaired or replaced, your equipment becomes a fire menace.

Fire Chief James E. Thomas also highly recommends more fire protection. "Not more than 5 per cent of our homes have approved fire extinguishers. Most of the fires that we have been called to put out would never have spread so fast had there been a fire extinguisher handy. Make an Underwriters' Laboratories approved fire extinguisher standard household equipment."

The fire chief offers the assistance of the fire department for all those who wish information on fire protection. "If anyone would like to know more about fire hazards, don't hesitate to call your fire department."

WORKMAN BURNED

John Kirkwood, aged 21 years, of 925 Martin street, suffered first and second degree burns of the hands and right leg, when gasoline caught fire at the Cheeseman Motor Truck Company, on Sampson street, Wednesday evening at 10:45 p. m.

He was admitted to the Jameson Memorial hospital for treatment.

COOL KEEPING—FOODS

Heat is the culprit but light often gets the blame for deterioration of color and flavor in home-canned foods during storage. Because of the mistaken idea about light, many housewives carefully store jars in the dark or even wrap them in paper, but give less attention to temperature.

Cool rather than dark storage is important for keeping canned food at its best, scientists at the Massachusetts Experiment Station emphasize. Many tests at this station have shown that, in ordinary home storage light has no effect on canned food, but that the warmth of ordinary room temperature causes changes in color and flavor and loss of nutritive value.

Colored foods, such as beets and raspberries, stored at room temperature (70-80 degrees F.) lost color and flavor, regardless of whether they were in the dark or on a shelf exposed to light. But these qualities were well retained when the products were stored at 42 degrees F.

The scientists explain that oxidation—the action of oxygen in the air entrapped in the container—is what damages color and flavor and destroys some vitamins, especially vitamin C. Oxidation is increased and speeded up by warmth but retarded by cold. The warmer the storage, the more rapid the deterioration.

Food canned at home may suffer more damage from oxidation than commercially processed food, not because of light coming through the glass, but because more air may be left in the jar. This is particularly true of such products as fruits that are given only a short process in a boiling water bath. Cool storage, therefore, is recommended to hold the appetizing quantities and vitamin content of home canned food. It is also advised for commercially canned products. All canned foods should be stored at temperatures below 70 degrees Fahrenheit.

The new method of canning fruits with added ascorbic acid (vitamin C) is a great protection against damage from oxidation because this substance absorbs oxygen in the jar and prevents it from acting on the fruit. Even when ascorbic acid is used, cool storage is advised to protect the food.

Friday Final Day To Enter Contest

HARRISBURG, Dec. 11.—(INS)—Chairman Miles Horst of the State Farm Show Commission reminded Pennsylvania farmers candidates that tomorrow is the final day to enter the championship horseshoe pitching contest.

Horst said the contest was open to "bona fide farmers" only and will be held the evening of January 15 during the Farm Show.

The deadline for entries in the first championship log-sawing contest was December 20, he added. Entries will be limited to two two-man teams from each county.

Bangle Day On Saturday

Miss Mary A. Howley, secretary of the Lawrence county Tuberculosis Society, announced today that "Bangle Day" will be held in the city this Saturday—the sale of these bangles being part of the drive for funds in the annual Christmas Seal Sale.

Girls of the Rainbow organization will be in the stores, banks and other establishments and residents are asked to support this one-day effort in the campaign to quell one of our most ravaging diseases.

Rural Mail Carriers Taking Farm Census

HARRISBURG, Dec. 11.—Rural mail carriers of Pennsylvania this week are collecting reports from thousands of farmers so that the State Department of Agriculture may learn how many horses, mules, cattle, milk cows, calves, sheep, lambs, chickens and turkeys are to be found on farms of the state.

The survey is a semi-annual contribution of rural carriers to the fund of facts about Pennsylvania agriculture which aid farmers in deciding how many head of livestock and poultry they should raise in the coming year to meet consumer demands, according to Secretary Miles Horst.

Special livestock cards were distributed by the carriers to rural mail boxes last week and they are now collecting the filled-in reports. The cards are returned to E. L. Gasteiger, federal-state agricultural statistician. Skilled clerks and intricate machines soon calculate the livestock and poultry population on Pennsylvania farms, together with their value. Results will be announced shortly after the first of the year.

Map Program For U. S. Battle On Inflation

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—(INS)—Republican leaders in Congress agreed Wednesday on an immediate anti-inflation bill extending export and transportation controls and providing voluntary industrial rationing and an increase in gold reserves.

The agreement came as the Senate Banking Committee, despite opposition by Sen. Taft (R) Ohio, approved by a 9-4 vote legislation restoring consumer installment credit controls.

At the same time, Federal Reserve Board Chairman Marriner Eccles announced that the Federal Reserve Rediscout rate soon will be increased—probably by one-fourth of one per cent.

Wolcott will sponsor the GOP anti-inflation measure which is based on voluntary cooperation in allocation of scarce materials rather than the compulsory controls sought by the administration.

Republican leaders refused to discuss the program in detail when their 90-minute closed session broke up.

Reports On Action

It was reported, however, that the legislation would continue the administration's power to control exports, now slated to expire Feb. 29, 1948, and its authority over transportation facilities, especially the allocation of box cars, of which there is a noticeable scarcity in the country.

The program also embodies an appeal to the nation's industrial and business leaders to launch a voluntary program of industry rationing of scarce materials, such as steel and gasoline. They would be protected by law without fear of being prosecuted for violation of the anti-trust laws.

The fourth proposal in the GOP program involves increasing the amount of gold reserves held by the Federal Reserve Banks against commercial credits.

Sen. Taft (R) Ohio, chairman of the Senate Republican policy committee, expressed doubt that any action would be taken at this session to restore consumer credit controls.

Taft stated: "Consumer credits will be handled separately, if at all. I don't know whether we can reach it before Christmas."

Rep. Halleck (R) Ind., House majority leader, said the GOP program is to pass the legislation in time for Congress to adjourn the special session Dec. 18 or 19.

Warns Subversive Influences At Work On American Ships

CLEVELAND, Dec. 11.—A new shipbuilding program for the American merchant marine was urged by leading naval and shipping figures.

Vice Admiral E. L. Cochrane of the navy (retired) told more than 200 members of the American Legion and maritime leaders at the Legion's first regional conference in Cleveland yesterday that "subversive influences" are at work on American vessels.

Cochrane warned that American interests would transfer their business to ships of other nations unless some means was found to change the labor situation aboard American ships.

"We should place contracts for the urgently needed passenger ships of adequate design, not only for American flag service, but for conversion into suitable troop transports against the day they may be needed," he asserted.

Frazer A. Bailey, president of the National Federation of American Shipping, told the delegates that the war took a heavy toll of transport ships. He asserted that the United States has only 47 passenger vessels in operation, compared with 131 in 1939.

Probe 'Hush-Hush' American Wartime Purchasing Agency

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—(INS)—A hush-hush American wartime purchasing agency that precipitated a cabinet crisis in the middle of a Congressional committee griddle.

A House Expenditure subcommittee is to hear Dewitt C. Schieck, president of the U. S. Commercial Co. since 1945, testify on the corporation's failure to keep adequate accounts of an estimated two billion dollars in purchases of vital war materials.

The group is looking into Commercial Co. operations under the wartime leadership of former Vice-President Henry A. Wallace, former Secretary of Commerce Jesse Jones and Foreign Economic Administration Leo T. Crowley.

The corporation took the limelight as a subsidiary of the Reconstruction Finance Company. The committee is investigating reports that "millions of dollars" were lost in RFC wartime operations.

A general accounting office auditor testified that the Commercial Co.'s bidding for strategic materials to keep them out of the hands of the Axis nations cost the United States at least 104 million dollars for which no adequate accounting can be made.

Mt. Lebanon Child Killed By Auto

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 11.—(INS)—Susan Steffens, 4, of Mt. Lebanon was dead today of a fractured skull, the victim of an automobile accident.

Susan and her mother, Mrs. Margaret Steffens, were walking along a road when a car, driven by a 17-year-old girl skidded into them.

Mrs. Steffens was taken to Mercy Hospital with undetermined injuries.

Road Improvement Program Outlined

HARRISBURG, Dec. 11.—(INS)—A $100,000,000 road improvement program for 1948 was outlined today by the State Highways Department.

Highway officials announced approximately 1,500 miles of road will be constructed and improved under the program being blue-printed by department engineers.

Federal aid was expected to finance 145 miles of road building to be placed under contract at an estimated $51,000,000, they said. Ninety miles of highway will be financed with $25,000,000 of state funds.

Department forces will improve the remaining 1,185 miles of road at cost of approximately $18,000,000, it was reported.

ANTI-SMOKE DRIVE

WASHINGTON, D. C.—(INS)—Major cities are striving for effective smoke-control action before severely cold weather boosts consumption of smoke-producing fuels. The American Public Works Association reports that Pittsburgh, long notorious for its smog, is in the vanguard of municipalities taking decisive action to curb soot and fumes. Other cities with anti-smoke campaigns include Akron, Chicago, Detroit and Salt Lake City.

Finds British Are Now Living More Austerely

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—(INS)—Inez Robb, noted American newspaper woman, returned today from England where she reported she found living conditions "infinitely more austere" than when she was in that country in 1941.

"The situation insofar as food, clothing and other necessities are concerned has deteriorated unbelievably," she said.

"But the British, with characteristic pride, are 'taking it stoically, and without whimpering.'"

Mrs. Robb came home on the liner Queen Mary which docked Wednesday. During her month's stay in England she covered the wedding of Princess Elizabeth and Lt. Philip Mountbatten for International News Service.

Really Shocked

"I was really shocked to see the austere manner in which the British are living," said Mrs. Robb.

"Times are much harder than when I was there in 1941 observing England under war conditions, and a great deal worse than when I was there in 1937 covering the coronation of King George VI and Queen Elizabeth."

"Last month—after the royal wedding—there was none of the gay parties such as I was invited to after the coronation in '37."

Mrs. Robb, a clothes-conscious young woman with a Powers model build, couldn't resist injecting a bit of humor into the drab situation she found in England.

"The starch diet," she reported with a wry smile, "is making the men thinner and the women plumper."

"It's unfair, but it's a fact."

Steel Companies Seeking To Wreck Black Markets

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—(INS)—Iron Age reported that quietly, but forcibly, major steel companies have been striking out in an effort to wreck the black market in steel.

As a result, dozens of customers have been removed from mill order books for gray market activity.

The national metalworking weekly said that no system of government allocation or control would have an effect on the steel gray market which involves only four or five per cent of the total steel being shipped.

It disclosed that tinplate producers have raised the price of tin mill products for 1948. The mark-ups ranged from 17 to 21 dollars a ton.

Steel ingot production this week was reported unchanged at the postwar peak level of 98 per cent.

Motorists Warned Winter Months To Make Roads Bad

Urge State Motorists To Use Extreme Caution In Driving On Dangerous Highways

HARRISBURG, Dec. 11.—(INS)—Highway Director T. E. Transeau today warned Pennsylvania motorists the coming winter months will be "the most dangerous" for highway travelers.

Transeau emphasized that December, January and February are "treacherous" for motorists because of "extreme variations in road and weather conditions."

"Up to 65 per cent of all traffic accidents in northern states during the winter months occur on snow-covered or ice coated surfaces," he said. "Traffic death rates run 24 to 53 per cent higher during the winter months than in summer."

Will Do Best
Highway workers will do their utmost to keep roads clear of snow and ice, but cannot be expected to cover all roads at all times, Transeau declared.

"The responsibility for reducing accidents and stalled traffic must be shared by individual drivers," he asserted.

He pointed out that during winter months motorists must adjust speeds to road conditions and exercise special precautions. They include slowing down at curves and intersections, using tire chains on snow and ice, keeping windshields and windows clear, following other vehicles at safe distances, signaling intentions of stopping and turning and applying brakes with a gentle pumping action.

Stress Medical Defense In Case Of Another War

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 11.—(INS)—Plans for the medical defense of Philadelphia in the event of atomic warfare were initiated today following a warning by the president of the American Medical Association.

The Hospital Council of Philadelphia, representing 45 major institutions, voted to begin a full-scale program of training for treatment of radio-active casualties.

Earlier, Dr. Edward L. Bortz, AMA head, told the council that such a plan had been recommended to him by the U. S. Atomic Energy commission.

Must Be Informed
Dr. Bortz pointed out that unsettled international relationships make it essential that the medical profession be well informed upon the type of injuries to be expected in atomic conflict.

The AMA president added: "Indifference to this need in the face of unstable relationships with a major power may result in disastrous consequences."

Dr. Bortz said that nationally there should be a general medical council from the armed forces, medical organizations, hospitals, nursing groups and pharmaceutical organizations to study the country's needs.

Ask Cooperation

In a resolution, the Hospital Council of Philadelphia stressed that the city was not able at present to care for radio-active casualties caused either by possible atomic bombs or by the use of radio-active isotopes in research and industry.

The council's program called for cooperation by the medical and nursing professions and hospitals "with the support and understanding of the public."

Defense Contends Slayer Insane In Killing Of Niece

Ex-Farmhand On Trial For Murder
In Philadelphia Court Called
'Problem Child'

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 11.—(INS)—The defense pressed its plea of insanity today as the trial of George Neill, 22-year-old ex-farmhand accused of strangling his niece, neared a jury in Philadelphia.

Harry M. Berkowitz, counsel for Neill, said he would produce records of school psychologists and U. S. Marine physicians to show that the defendant was a "problem" and a psychopathic case.

Had Been Drinking
The former Marine was charged with choking 11-year-old Isabelle Mallon to death after she resisted his advances. Her body was found in a vacant lot in North Philadelphia last September.

In a statement read by a detective, Neill said he strangled his niece as the climax of a three-day drinking bout financed by a $55 disability pension check.

During the spree, the defendant said he quit his job on a farm near Doylestown and came back to the home of his sister, Isabelle's mother. After taking the child to a vacant lot, Neill continued:

Start To Cry
"We were both lying on the ground. I kissed her continuously and she started to cry. A fear came over me and she said she would tell her parents." The confession added:

"I put my hand over her mouth, and the next thing I knew I was choking her with both hands. . . I did not molest the girl at all. I might have done it, but when she said she was going to tell her parents, that was when I was full of fear."

Seeks Reason That Forbids Son's Burial In National Cemetery

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 11.—(INS)—A Pittsburgh man, father of five ex-GI's, is waging a one-man campaign to have Gettysburg National cemetery reopened so that his son, Leo, may be buried there.

The son was killed on Saipan while serving as a marine in 1944.

The father is deliberately delaying the return of the body of his son from a temporary cemetery on Saipan while he pursues his campaign.

McDonald said he received a letter last August from Gen. A. A. Vandergrift, commandant of the Marine Corps in Washington, advising him that his son, Leo, would be buried in Gettysburg.

It is the only national cemetery in this state listed as available for World War II heroes.

Later, the father said, he received word from Lt. Edwin C. Clarke, executive officer of the casualty division of the Marine Corps, advising him that McDonald must select another burial spot for his son in another state.

Col. George W. Hinman, head of the liaison branch of the office of the memorial division, asserted:

"All the space which the department of the interior allotted us in Gettysburg cemetery under the program of returning war veterans has been used. There is nothing we can do."

But McDonald thinks otherwise, and he intends to find out why.

Many birds are relatively color-blind and unable to distinguish, for distance, the color blue.

All Cases Tried Or Pleas Entered, Two Not Guilty Verdicts In Drunken Driving Cases

OTHER EVENTS
IN COURT HOUSE

With the completion of a case in court room number one Wednesday afternoon the December term of criminal court came to an end. The last case to be tried was that against Joseph A. Berish accused of driving while intoxicated. This case was in court room number one before Judge W. Walter Braham.

Two not guilty verdicts were taken in drunken driving charges. In court room number one Robert J. McClure was found not guilty and the costs divided between the prosecutor and the defendant. In court room two before Judge John G. Lamoree, Michael Nosik was found not guilty upon a similar charge.

In court room number one Judge Braham scored the jury for placing half the costs upon the prosecutor. Willis McMullen of the New Castle police department, "When a case is honestly brought by an officer, it does not behoove the jury to place costs upon the officer," said Judge Braham.

Retired Railroaders
To Be Feted Saturday

Pennsylvania Railroaders Veterans Association To Sponsor Party At Ashtabula

Employees of the Erie & Ashtabula division of the Pennsylvania railroad who have been retired on pension during 1947 will be honored Saturday evening, December 13, at 8 o'clock. The Railroaders Veterans Association is sponsoring the event which will take place at the American Legion Home, Ashtabula, O. Several men from this district are included in the group of 25 employees who will be feted.

Gifts will be presented to those who are retiring. A floor show will be followed by dancing. Refreshments will also be served.

Guests will include all Pennsylvania railroaders and former employees as well as their wives. This will be the tenth party sponsored by the association.

J. S. Barrett, Arthur Lang, Erie; J. N. Cain, Wheatland; J. E. Kenahan, New Castle; C. P. Maynard, Niles, and Victor Flack, Youngstown, are responsible for arrangements.

Deaths from burns reach a peak in December. National Safety Council figures show. The principal reasons are defective heating appliances (or improper use of them) and defective chimneys. In December of 1945, 1,350 persons died from burns. During the summer the toll is about 500 a month.

Soviets Drilling Leaders To Aid
'External Policy'

LONDON, Dec. 11. — (INS) — London newspapers reported the Moscow radio quoted an address by Georgi M. Malenkov of the Russian politburo saying the Soviets were drilling leaders to carry out the cominform's "external policy."

Malenkov's speech was delivered last September in Warsaw at the founding of cominform—the Communist International Information Bureau.

He accused the United States and Britain of imperialism and declared:

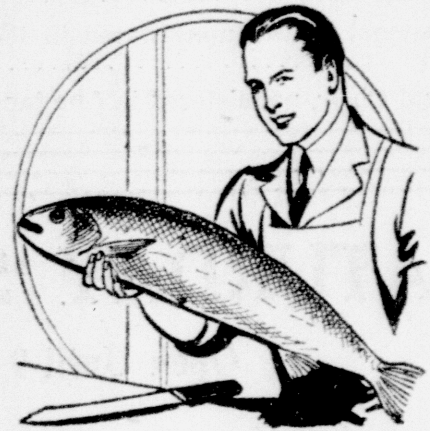

"Leaders will be taught how to defend the interests of the Socialist state in the international arena."

Malenkov is said to be close to Stalin.

Verne R. Carr Honored By Elks

District Deputy Is Presented With Wrist Watch On Official Visitation

MANY GUESTS ATTEND BANQUET

Verne R. Carr, past exalted ruler of New Castle Lodge of Elks, wound up his official visitations to the 17 lodges in the district Wednesday evening, when he was the guest of New Castle lodge No. 69. The occasion was marked by a banquet, attended by visitors from many western Pennsylvania lodges, and an initiation ceremony, when a class of candidates was received by the lodge.

Mr. Carr brought the message of the grand exalted ruler, and outlined his program for the year.

Eighty At Banquet
At the banquet, held in the lodge dining room, covers were laid for around 80, with visitors being present from Rochester, Elva, Oil City, Ellwood City, Beaver Falls, Ambridge, Erie, Coraopolis, Grove City, Wilkensburg, Meadville, Butler, Greenville, Aliquippa, Sharon and Brooklyn, N. Y., and Columbus, O.

During the course of the evening, Mr. Carr was presented with a beautiful wrist watch, as a gift from the local lodge. It was announced by Exalted Ruler Fred D. Moser that two more certificates had been purchased in the National Foundation, which goes into a trust fund for the support of the Elks program, only the interest being used. Locally, this money is devoted to assisting worthy local young people in furthering their education.

Aliquippa Burgess Will Reveal Story Of Truck Looting

ALIQUIPPA, Pa., Dec. 11.—(INS)—Residents of Aliquippa today were looking forward to the borough council meeting next Monday night, when Burgess Louis Fontana promised that he will reveal the full story of the alleged looting of a wrecked trailer-truck by Aliquippa police officers.

Fontana said that conflicting testimony has slowed him in attempting to determine which officers were involved and to what extent.

Three patrolmen have already been suspended.

Mail Calendars, Foreign Packages Now, Hanna States

Christmas Mail Will Have Preference Starting Next Week, Postmaster Warns

Postmaster William R. Hanna today issued an appeal to local residents to clear the tracks for the huge volume of Christmas mail, which is anticipated this year.

People are especially requested to mail advertising circulars and calendars now, as none will be handled during the next two weeks. This type of mail will have to be shunted aside until after Christmas, the postmaster warns, under regulations just issued by the postmaster general, in order to speed up Christmas service.

Folks who are planning to send packages to foreign lands, are also asked to mail them this week. This type of mail takes a long time to process, and if a great number of packages are received during the Christmas rush, it is going to hold things up. None of these packages will likely be received before Christmas anyhow, if they are sent after this week.

Yesterday was a big day at the post office, the early Christmas mail starting to roll in increasing volume. Christmas cards are now starting to come through, and the amount is expected to increase each day from now until Christmas.

People who want to be assured that their Christmas packages will arrive at their destination in good time, are also asked to get them into the mails now. This assures quick handling, and they will not pile up at the terminals in the rush which is coming on.

Report Veterans Offer To Fight For Arab Cause

LONDON, Dec. 11.—(INS)—A Reuters dispatch from Cairo reported that some 3,000 American veterans have cabled or written the Arab League headquarters in Cairo offering to fight for the Arab cause in Palestine.

The dispatch said the ex-servicemen ranged from major general to private.

A special committee is said to have been formed to deal with the applications, sifting them according to nationality and service rank. When the applications have been processed, the league secretariat will consult with the Arab general staff in Lebanon on whether to incorporate the foreigners in the Arab forces or set up an "international brigade."

Although a majority of the applicants are reportedly air force and army veterans, a number of engineers, doctors and sailors are included.

Company Official Urges Conserving Of Oil Products

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 11.—(INS)—Henderson Supplee, Jr., vice president of the Atlantic Refining Co., today urged a voluntary program of conservation by the consuming public to help the industry meet an all-time high for petroleum products.

"Many users do not realize that the demand for oil products in the United States alone is now equal to that of the entire world ten years ago," Supplee said.

He predicted the domestic demand for 1947 will total about seven per cent more than the wartime peak of 1945, an increase of 23.7 per cent over 1941.

Income Tax Forms Are Being Received

Individual Taxpayers In Local District Are Receiving Forms On Which To Make Returns

Form 1040, on which the individual taxpayer makes his return, are now being mailed to all persons required to make a return in western Pennsylvania. Stanley Granger, collector for western Pennsylvania announced today.

These forms are virtually the same as last year, and the tax rate is also about the same. Taxpayers will have until March 15 to study these forms and complete their return for the year 1947.

On January 1, partnership form 1065, fiduciary return 1041 and corporation form 1120 will be mailed to the taxpayers affected. Around 600,000 forms 1040 are being mailed to taxpayers in western Pennsylvania, Mr. Granger stated.

Steel Employees Paid 180 Million In Oct.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—The American Iron and Steel Institute said today a record $180,090,000 was paid wage earners and salaried workers in the industry during October.

This was almost triple the 1939 monthly average payroll of $67,731,000 and compared with the previous peak of $175,793,000 in May of this year.

Labor Dispute At Oak Ridge Has Been Settled

U. S. Atomic Energy Commission Announces Settlement Of Strike Threat

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—(INS)—Settlement of the labor dispute at the Oak Ridge, Tenn., atomic energy plant was announced early today by the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission.

In a statement issued in Washington, the commission said that union and management agreed on a new contract but the terms were not mentioned.

The CIO Gas, Coke and Chemical Workers Union, Local 288, had demanded a 25-cent hourly blanket wage increase and other concessions for nearly 3,000 workers at

Connellsville Also To Tax Amusements

CONNELLSVILLE, Dec. 11.—Council has instructed Solicitor Lewis M. D'Auria to draw an ordinance imposing a ten per cent tax on all amusements to be effective next January.

Members of the council said they felt there is a mounting need for increased revenues to provide relief for real estate owners and expressed the opinion the new tax might permit a slash of as much as two mills in the property tax levy.

A levy of $50 a year will be imposed on juke boxes and is expected to provide $7,500. At present, only pinball machines are licensed.

Demand Inquiry Into Food Speculation Charge

By WILLIAM THEIS
(N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—Sen. Ferguson (D) Mich., said today that the Senate Appropriations Committee has demanded that Army Secretary Royal check on food speculation by army personnel and that the cabinet officers indicated he would do to "by questionnaire."

Ferguson at the same time declared that speculation in food by administration "insiders" as charged by Harold E. Stassen would be "in the same class as Benny Meyers' bond deals."

The Senator's comment on the Stassen inflation charge came as GOP leaders turned on the heat to push through the special session their own four-point bill to attack high prices.

Members of the House Banking

Committee planned to approve the legislation today while Senate GOP chiefs also met to give the measure their blessing.

Voluntary Allocations
The bill introduced by Rep. Wolcott (D) Mich., authorizes voluntary allocations, export and transportation controls, and increasing gold reserves from 25 to 40 percent.

Stassen, former governor of Minnesota and a GOP Presidential candidate, called for a Congressional investigation of "profiteering in food" by "insiders" in the national administration.

He cited "persistent reports" that Edwin W. Pauley, assistant to Royal, and ex-treasurer of the Democratic National Committee, had made "substantial" purchases and sales of wheat and other food commodities during 1947. Stassen told a Doylestown, Pa., audience that Pauley had been asked if the reports were true and had not answered.

Would Welcome Inquiry

Pauley said in Washington that he would welcome the opportunity to discuss the subject fully "when or if the proper occasion arises."

Pauley said: "Mr. Stassen aspires to be the Republican nominee for the presidency. Even if I were able to contribute to his fulfillment of that aspiration, I see no reason why I should do so. It happens I am not able to do so."

Ferguson, who conducted the War Investigating Committee probe of Maj. Gen. Bennet E. Meyers' financial operations, asserted that the appropriations committee has authority to make the inquiry asked by Stassen.

HARRISBURG—Adm. Oliver H. Perry's flagship, the Niagara, has her champions.

A dozen old salts along the Atlantic seaboard offered to do the job after word got around that the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum commission lacked bidders for a contract to rig the ancient warship that made naval history in the Battle of Lake Erie, War of 1812.

The ship being restored at Erie, is awaiting finishing touches to its superstructure.

The commission said that when the state first asked for bids there was no response. After that was publicized, offers came right and left.

Bologna Police Seize Valuables Left By Mussolini

Citizens Of Italian Town In Frenzy
As Police End Successful
Treasure Hunt

BOLOGNA, Dec. 11.—(INS)—Bologna police have part of the fabulous "Mussolini treasure" which the Italian dictator had with him when he was executed by partisans.

Strong motorized police forces panicked Bologna yesterday when they roared through the city in a successful hunt for some of the valuables.

Items recovered included a small silver horse donated by Hitler; a gold brocade tapestry, and a valuable painting on silk given by former Japanese Foreign Minister Yosuke Matsuoka. There is also an album containing signatures of the world's foremost personalities.

Citizens Nervous

A 27-volume Mussolini diary also is being sought but it is believed to be in the possession of the United States military.

There have been reports that the Communist-led partisans seized a goodly portion of the treasure and used it to finance Communist operation in Italy.

Meadville Plans Amusement Tax

MEADVILLE, Dec. 11.—Council approved a 10 per cent amusement tax Tuesday night despite voiced protests from three groups who claimed the levy, on top of a 20 per cent Federal tax, was "unjust."

The new budget, passed on first and second readings, calls for $493,132, an increase of $71,000 above last year. This is necessary, it was explained, to pay higher salaries of city employees for street improvements and garbage collection costs.

The amusement tax is expected to net $40,000.

AVIATION PIONEER RETIRE BY NAVY

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—Adm. John H. Towers, the "Father of Naval Aviation", who piloted the navy's first airplane, in 1911, has retired from active duty to head a civilian scientific research foundation in New York, it is an announcement.

The navy said the 62-year-old veteran was not retired for disability but because he had reached the disability age.

He left his post as chairman of the navy's policy-making general board on Monday to take up his new civilian job as head of the Pacific War Memorial Foundation.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Dec. 11.—Youngstown recorded its twenty-sixth traffic death Wednesday, three more than the record for all of 1946, as Daniel Boland, 65, died in South Side Unit of Youngstown Hospital an hour after he had been struck by a hit-skip motorist.

Break Between France-Russia Is Possibility

By ROBERT PARKER
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

PARIS, Dec. 11.—Premier Robert Schuman's French government prepared today for a possible complete diplomatic break with the Soviet Union.

Relations between the two nations came dangerously near the snapping point last night when Paris refused to accept a sharp Russian note breaking off trade negotiations with France and cancelling a repatriation agreement.

According to a French foreign office spokesman, the strong terms of the Russian note—which was the Soviet answer to the recent ousting of 20 Russian "agitators" from France—even implied the threat of Soviet cancellation of the Franco-Russian treaty of alliance. Charles De Gaulle, former provisional president of France, negotiated the treaty in 1944.

(In Moscow Col. Raymond Marquet—chief of the French repatriation commission—blamed the entire controversy upon a "general anti-Soviet plan.")

Accusations Denied
Marquet, whose five-member French mission was ordered to leave Russia tomorrow, told a news conference that the initiative for the events should be sought "elsewhere" than in France.

(He charged that accusations against the expelled Russia repatriation mission were unfounded and were repetition of "fictitious facts" contained in an anti-Soviet magazine published by Emigres in the United States.)

Following up their expulsion of the Soviet repatriation mission for "subversive activities," the French authorities refused to accept the official Russian note on the grounds that it was "inadmissible."

Schuman's cabinet, which met under the chairmanship of President Vincent Auriol, instructed Charge d'Affaires Pierre Charpentier at Moscow to return the note to the Russians.

These developments occurred as France pulled itself out of the newly ended Communist strike crisis, while virtually all the one-and-one-half million Frenchmen made idle by the walkouts returned to their jobs.

French Ambassador Uninjured In Crash

ELLERICA, Mass., Dec. 11.—(INS)—French Ambassador Henri Bonnet escaped injury today when the automobile in which he was riding skidded on Boston road and was involved in a minor three-car collision.

Riding with the ambassador was former Lieut. Gov. Gaspar Bacon of Dedham, unsuccessful candidate for governor. Their car jumped the automobile ahead of them and was in turn struck by the car behind.

Bonnet was en route to Boston from Manchester, N. H., where he addressed the community forum.

School Board May Seek To Buy Part Of Brown Property

Some further action towards securing part of the Brown property on East street was taken by the New Castle Board Wednesday night. While actual steps to condemn the property have not yet been taken, the board did vote to query Mr. and Mrs. De Grin Renfrew as to the possibility of purchasing sufficient grounds to erect a field house. This would mean that the home would not be taken, only sufficient ground necessary to the building.

Former Judge James A. Chambers and Attorney Edwin K. Logan appeared before the board Wednesday night to ask that the board not condemn the home and land.

"This was the girlhood home of Mrs. Renfrew," said Judge Chambers. "Her health just now is not good, and in addition we feel this property is too valuable to take for the purpose intended. Certainly other properties could be secured which would cost less."

The board will ascertain if a purchase of ground can be made, which would include a house now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Arch Cubison. A query will also be made as to the possibility of purchasing the Reis property adjoining the Brown property.

Women May Get Jobs As Clerks In State Stores

HARRISBURG, Dec. 11.—(INS)—Supplemental civil service examinations for women seeking jobs as counter clerks in state stores were under consideration by the state liquor control board.

The tests, if approved, would be held some time after the January 24 examinations scheduled to establish lists of men eligible for an estimated 700 provisional clerkships which expire in June. They included jobs held by an estimated 200 women mostly in the Philadelphia area.

Chairman Frederick T. Gelder said the board had not intended to eliminate women from the stores where they were employed on a wartime emergency basis. He said they added "tone" to the retail outlets and turned out excellent work.

When the legislature put the jobs back on a pre-war civil service basis, examinations automatically were scheduled for men only, he explained.

Separate examinations for women were discussed with a view toward setting up separate eligibility lists in order that the board would get a man for a job requiring heavy work, Gelder said.

Approximately 400 women worked at many of the 574 stores during the height of the war.

They were hired chiefly in metropolitan areas because clerks often had to handle crates in small stores, Gelder reported.

Suttee, the Hindu custom under which a widow burns herself to death on her husband's funeral pyre, was first banned officially in British India in 1829.

County Legion Members Dine

Annual Dinner In Ellwood Country Club Addressed By Western Vice Commander

PROGRAM FOR YEAR OUTLINED

Around 75 Legionnaires from the various American Legion posts in Lawrence County were in attendance at the annual dinner of the county committee, held in the Ellwood Country Club, Wednesday evening, with Western Vice Commander Al Gillette, of Oil City, as the main speaker and guest of honor.

Mr. Gillette outlined the program of the American Legion, particularly as it applies to Pennsylvania.

He urged the county posts to back the National program on Universal Military Training, and stated that Larry Trainor, past president of the Pennsylvania committee to look into the hospitalization program.

Big Year Indicated

He also urged the posts to put over their local gifts for Yanks program, and to continue their interest in the Scotland Orphans Home, where 363 children are being cared for.

He praised the membership efforts of the posts, and stated that the coming year is expected to see a big increase in membership in the state, as the returned veterans realize the importance of the Legion's program for their interests.

Other speakers included District Commander Paul Faux, of Butler; County Commander Robert Crawford, of Butler; County Commander I. J. Newton, of Baden; County Commissioner-elect Harvey E. Bush, of Cora; and County Commander Walter G. Dietterle, of New Wilmington, the new county commander.

Baird Toastmaster

R. Wayne Baird, of Ellwood City, district deputy commander, presided as toastmaster of the evening.

A short business meeting was held during the evening, when the county committee voted their annual contribution to the Scotland Home, and took care of other business matters. This meeting was presided over by Walt Whitman, new county commander.

Ralph Little, of Ellwood City; sergeant at arms, Don Dismore, of New Castle; chaplain, A. Lewis Conn, of New Castle; adjutant, John Marete, of Volant; and executive committee members, Joseph Solomon, of New Castle; and R. Wayne Baird, of Ellwood City.

Korean Citizens On Spending Spree

Order To Confiscate Currency Causes Wild Scramble To Buy, Confusion Reigns

SEOUL, Korea, Dec. 11.—(INS)—Travelers from Soviet-occupied north Korea reported today that a recent currency confiscation order in the Russian zone resulted in widespread confusion and a wild buying spree that sent prices soaring immediately.

Many privately-owned stores in the Soviet area were said to have been forced to shut their doors at noon the same day the currency change was announced.

Offer No Comment

The drastic money reforms in north Korea were also reported in Korean newspapers in American-occupied south Korea, but American authorities refused to discuss the situation and had no official comment.

Informal opinion in Seoul was that the Soviet area is serving notice she will handle her own affairs in north Korea regardless of United Nations action. The money change over is believed to have tightened Russia's economic grip on the occupied nation.

Turn In Money

Reports reaching Seoul from the Soviet zone said that on December 4 all residents were required to turn into banks all money in their possession—old Korean bank notes as well as Russian occupation currency.

The order was issued by Kim Il Sung, puppet leader of the Russian-controlled Korean people's committee. Although a certain rate of exchange was promised, north Koreans considered the move a confiscation one and rushed into the streets to buy anything and everything having a resale value.

Arbitration Roster To Be Completed For State Service

HARRISBURG, Dec. 11.—(INS)—Gov. James H. Duff's 11-member labor management advisory com-mittee hoped to complete within two weeks an arbitration roster in line with the state's new anti-utility strike law.

The committee assigned to sub-mit a roster of names from which he may select a 12-member panel, will hold its fourth meeting at Harrisburg December 23.

Chairman H. K. Breckenridge, of Pittsburgh, vice president of the West Penn Power Co., announced the group hoped to compete its assignment at that time. He explained members had reduced their preliminary list from 200 to ap-proximately 50 names at a meeting yesterday.

Breckenridge said the commit-tee planned to submit at least 15 candidates to the governor. The panel must represent equally labor and utility groups, three-member boards will be selected from the panel to settle disputes.

The committee's final recom-mendations will include "pro-fessional arbitrators and distin-guished citizens who are well qual-ified to aid in settlement of labor disputes, according to Brecken-ridge.

State Streams In Bad Shape

HARRISBURG, Dec. 11.—(INS)—Health Secretary Norris W. Vaux, today claimed many Pen-nsylvania streams "are nothing short of vile sewers."

Reviewing the statewide pro-gram to clean up polluted water-ways, Vaux asserted that for more than a century "we have been despoiling our streams with little or no consideration of the con-sequences." He is chairman of the Sanitary Water Board enforcing the drive.

Depend On Streams

Ninety per cent of the state's population depends upon streams for water supplies, he asserted.

"Clean water is the life blood of civilization," Vaux declared. "Water is vital to both agriculture and industry, but their needs cannot be supplied from foul, con-taminated streams."

He said industry frequently is required to tap underground sources for pure supplies and warned "this supply may be found not inexhaustible."

"Industry therefore has a vital stake in clean streams, both as a guarantee of supply and also for more efficient operation," he said. "It also has the responsibility of abating pollution so streams can be restored to public use for which they are intended."

Municipalities and industries were held equally responsible for abating pollution.

Vaux emphasized the sanitary water board will "see that this responsibility is met in every in-stance."

May Discipline Head Of French Mission To Soviet

PARIS, Dec. 11.—(INS)—The possibility was seen in Paris today of severe disciplinary action against the head of the French repatriation mission in Moscow who criticized France's attitude toward Soviet Russia.

Col. Raymond Marquie, the commission head, blamed all the present tension between France and Russia on an "anti-Soviet plan." Present indications are that the outcome could be severance of diplomatic relations.

Francis Mitterand, French min-ister of veterans, said he is await-ing official confirmation. He added that if reports of what Marquie said are correct, he will be pun-ished severely for "declarations contrary to the truth and injur-ious to his country."

The newspaper Le Monde said that Marquie is affiliated with the Communist party and fought as a partisan in Poland and the Ukraine. Le Monde added that he actually is a sergeant in the French reserve but was delegated a colonel to enable him to take the post as mission chief.

Blast In Effort To Dislodge Body Of Harmony Boy

ZELIENOPLE, Dec. 11.—(INS)—Blasting of Connoquessing Creek at Harmony continued to-day, as state police sought to dis-lodge the body of three-year-old Richard Lutz, believed to have drowned within 100 yards of his home on Monday.

More than 400 persons had been searching the woods for the boy, until a playmate told of seeing Dick fall into the creek.

When dragging of the creek failed to show any trace of the child, dynamite was employed.

Shenango-Elm St. Y's Form Joint Program Committee

A joint committee has been formed consisting of the mem-ber-ship of the Elm St. Branch Y. W. C. A. and the Shenango St. Y. M. C. A.

This committee is to serve to better coordinate the programs of the two branches and to work to-gether to give to its members a better understanding of Y pro-grams and activities. Officers for the committee were elected as fol-lows—co-chairmen: Mildred Engs, Jerome Cooper, secretary, Maud Gardner, treasurer, Robert Cohen.

A social committee was appointed for an event in December. This event has been canceled due to the fact that it conflicted with an al-ready planned activity. The first event of the committee will be held in January. Any member of either branch is urged to attend the meetings of this group.

The committee wants to serve in four distinct fields regarding Y work: religious, social, educational, recreational. Managements com-mittees of both branches are very anxious for the success of this pro-gram.

State Chamber Of Commerce Has Some Proposals

Supports Congressional Proposals
For Community Property Tax Law

HARRISBURG, Dec. 11.—(INS)—The Pennsylvania State Chamber of Commerce today supported Congressional proposals to recognize community property for income tax purposes.

Married couples would be permitted to split their joint earnings for calculating separate, and subsequently lower, tax obligations.

The privilege was denied Pennsylvanians November 26 when the State Supreme Court ruled the Commonwealth's new community property law unconstitutional.

The chamber's board of directors voted to support Congressional proposals to equalize married couples' income taxes in all states in a resolution passed at a board meeting in Harrisburg.

Recommendations Made
President Roy C. McKenna, of Latrobe, announced the board also adopted five recommendations on federal finances. They included:

(1) Substantial reduction of personal income tax rates, including a maximum of 50 per cent.
(2) Alleviation of the so-called "double-taxation" of corporate dividends by allowing credit to dividend recipients in their income tax reports.

(3) Liberalized treatment of pension plans and annuities for purposes of federal income and estate taxation.

(4) Lower tax rates for small income corporations to encourage small business.
(5) Elimination of "tax discrimination" for government-financed enterprises, cooperatives and non-profit organizations.

The chamber also adopted a resolution favoring reduction of the corporate income tax rate from 38 to 32 per cent.

It urged federal expenditures be reduced through personnel cuts, deferment of "non-urgent" public works, advantageous use of economies obtained through the unification of the armed forces, and elimination of duplicate federal activities.

BE CAREFUL

NEW YORK, (INS)—Each year more than 800,000 fires break out in the United States. Children are the most frequent victims. The Fire Prevention Institute reports fire damages for 1947 will probably amount to 700 million dollars.

NEW DREDGE
PITTSBURGH, (INS)—To maintain the depths in sea approaches to New York harbor, an ocean-going dredge that can strip 12,000 tons of dirt and mud from navigable channels in two hours will soon go into service. It was disclosed recently by engineers of the Westinghouse Electric Corporation.

In the early 19th century life insurance was limited by law to do little more than offer death benefits.

Tariff Changes Will Be Helpful To Pennsylvania

HARRISBURG, Dec. 11.—(INS)—The state planning board today reported that tariff changes under the general agreement on tariffs and trade, signed at Geneva October 30, may have "substantial" effect on Pennsylvania industry and agriculture.

The board said a survey of the agreement showed the removal of a 50-cent per ton duty on anthracite coal to Canada was "perhaps the most important single item" among the tariff changes.

Forty-two million dollars worth of hard coal was sold to Canada in 1946, according to the board.

See Benefits
A reduction of the duty on soft coal to Canada from 75 to 50 cents a ton was expected to be of value in increasing exports from the state's bituminous mines, it was reported.

Other reductions affecting Pennsylvania agriculture included lower tariffs on canned fruits and fruit syrups, frozen vegetables, baby chicks, eggs in the shell, cocoa preparations and confectionery.

Concessions made by the United States under the agreement include duty reductions on imports of whiskey, cattle, fish, cheese, potatoes and other vegetables, and aluminum.

Of particular importance to Pennsylvania—the largest producer of cigar leaf tobacco—was a tariff reduction granted to Cuba on Cuban cigars and cigar filler.

"The Good-Natured Man" was a comedy by Goldsmith which was produced at Covent Garden, Jan. 29, 1769.

University's Library Starts To Photograph Copies Of Newspapers

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., Dec. 11.—(INS)—The West Virginia University library, falling into step with a nation-wide trend, has begun the task of photographing and preserving on microfilm the pages of the bound copies of West Virginia's daily and weekly newspapers, according to Librarian Elmer M. C. ... The reason was needed because the newspapers on file were deteriorating quickly and would have been lost in a few years. The film being made is durable, takes up less space and countless numbers of positive prints can be made easily. After the newspapers have been with a nation-wide trend, has begun the task of photographing and preserving on microfilm the pages of the bound copies of West Vir-

U.S.A.F. New Look Was Postponed

Showing Of New Uniforms Scheduled For Wednesday Did Not Come Off

By GEORGE MOISE
(U. S. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—The air force disappointed the world of fashion when it called off "operation Schiaparelli," a scheduled showing of the USAF new look.

"Operation Schiaparelli" was scheduled to be held Wednesday at Bolling field, Washington's USAF base, and close mouthed public relations officers would tell nothing of their long held secret.

Transportation for fashion writers, photographers and just plain Pentagon correspondents had been arranged to Bolling, and all the professional predictors were ready to say "I told you so," or complain that the new look was not as aesthetic as their designs or predictions. But the air force postponed the showing.

Few Things Certain

A few things were certain. The uniform will in all probability be blue, a powder, or royal air force blue, so that the fly boys wouldn't be mistaken for the navy.

And only a color blind non-flyer could mistake it for the army's olive drab.

Another certainty was that there will be different uniforms for officers and enlisted men. When the showing was called off, an announcement was being readied that specifically stated that both enlisted and commissioned uniforms would be modeled.

In this the air force is stringing along with the navy, where there is no possibility of confusing an admiral for a seaman second class. In the army a directive has been issued that all uniforms will be alike sometime in the future, but the implementation has been delayed from time to time.

Havana, Cuba, is only 90 miles from Key West, Fla.

Sub-Divisions Are Being Encouraged

HARRISBURG, Dec. 11.—(INS)—Consolidation of small political sub-divisions would be encouraged under a plan being studied today by the local government commission.

The commission took under consideration during a meeting at Harrisburg yesterday a program to facilitate merger of small townships and boroughs to permit joint financing and more economical operations. The project was slated for further discussion at the commission's next regular meeting January 22.

The commission also discussed possible legislation to fix uniform fiscal dates in all political sub-divisions of the Commonwealth.

English dramatist, William Congreve, who died in 1729, is still considered to be the greatest English master of comedy, and only one of his plays was revived in New York.

The old custom of exchanging rings and betrothal vows was used in the Russian branch of the Eastern church. For the succeeding marriage ceremony or "crowning," the same rings were used again. The rubric states that the bride's ring should be of silver (to show she is the less honorable vessel), while the bridegroom's was of gold to show his superiority. The brides, however, resented this inequality, and, in modern times, at least, are given gold rings, too. The old Russian custom was for the husband to wear his ring on his forefinger.

Around Hollywood

By JOHN TODD
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 11.—This little piece today is written mainly for the person who sent a letter addressed "to the most beautiful girl in Hollywood," whoever and wherever she may be.

I think he would like to know what happened to it.

I was on the M-G-M lot, leaning against a wall to bask in the afternoon sun, when I heard of it. A junior executive, happening along, stopped to make conversation.

"I suppose you've already heard about the letter," he said.

What Letter

I said no, I hadn't and what letter was he talking about, anyhow.

"I mean the letter that came here addressed 'To the Most Beautiful Girl in Hollywood,' Hollywood, Calif.," the J.E. replied.

Well, I suppose you gave it to Elizabeth Taylor, she's the most beautiful girl in Hollywood," I said.

The junior executive wrinkled his brow and interposed:

"I wonder why they sent it to us. We're not really in Hollywood at all. We're in Culver City. Why didn't they send it to Paramount, or Columbia or RKO? They are really in Hollywood."

"I don't know," I said. "I suppose some postal clerk thinks, like I do, that Elizabeth is the most beautiful girl in movies so he sent it here. What did Elizabeth say when she got it?"

"Oh," he said, "we didn't give it to Elizabeth."

"Well," I demanded, "who did you give it to?"

"Oh," replied the J.E., "we didn't give it to anyone. It's not as simple as all that."

Wrinkles His Brow

He wrinkled his brow again and continued:

"How old can a girl be before she ceases to be a girl?"

"Well," I said, "Elizabeth won't be 16 until February so she certainly is a girl. I suppose there are stars in their late thirties who still regard themselves as girls."

"That's why we have to be careful," said the J.E.

"I don't get all this double talk," I said with some exasperation.

"Well," said the J.E., "suppose the letter had been delivered to 20th Century-Fox."

"Okay," I said, "let's suppose."

How About Jeanne

"Supposing 20th Century-Fox delivered it to Jeanne Crain. I think she is a very beautiful girl, don't you?"

"Yes, I do," I said. "That seems to make it all very simple."

"It isn't as simple as that," the J.E. said, "you see, if the studio gave the letter to Miss Crain that would make it official. It would mean that the studio officially regarded her as the most beautiful girl in Hollywood."

"Don't you think that Miss Crain might feel very proud and show the letter all over the place?" the J.E. inquired.

Seeing the Light

"Hah," said the junior executive, "now you're seeing the light. Do you think Linda Darnell would feel happy if 20th Century-Fox officially designated Jeanne Crain as the most beautiful girl in Hollywood? or Betty Grable? or Maureen O'Hara? They're all on the same lot, and very beautiful, too."

"Well," I said, "what's happened to the letter?"

The junior executive gave a sly wink, put his finger to his lips and said:

"It's been disposed of."

I thought a certain letter writer, whoever and wherever he may be, would like to know.

Holiday Activity At Oak Street

Numerous Programs Will Be Presented During Coming Days By Various School Groups

Students of Oak street school are extremely busy at the present time, making extensive preparation for the coming Christmas programs that will be presented in the school before the student body and other places.

On December 18, the boys and girls of the sixth grade will present a cantata, "The Wondrous Story" in the Reformed Presbyterian church at 7:45 p. m.

On December 19, before the W. C. T. U. group in the home of Dr. and Mrs. James Blackwood, Pearson street, a program will be presented, with Sally Barnes serving as reader. She will read the Christmas story while the school chorus under the supervision of Miss Grace Eakin sings carols.

On December 22 the instrumental section will present a program at the PTA meeting in the school. Solo numbers and ensemble selections will form a part of the program. Barbara Rodgers will be heard in violin selections; Frank Buckner on the trombone, John Buckner on the clarinet, Virginia Cerebell on the accordion and Ronald Kwiat and James Gess on the trumpets.

During the PTA program, several playlets, readings and recitations will be presented by the intermediate classes under the supervision of Miss Helen McCurley.

In the visual aid program of the school the new Statistoscope was in operation. The machine aids in eye span and helps the students to comprehend what they read more quickly. Words or phrases are thrown on the board with the use of the machine for a split second and the children read back what has appeared. Two motion pictures were shown to the students Wednesday by John Cornelius, principal.

When cold weather keeps people indoors, home accidents go up, according to the National Safety Council. Home accident fatalities were fewest from April to September—2,300 to 2,600—and most frequent in cold weather—3,300 in January and 3,600 in December. There's no place like home—for accidents.

Loyalty Under Persecution

Highlights On The Sunday School Lesson

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

(The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for December 14 is Acts 16:16-40; 1 Peter 4:12-19; 5:6-7; Revelation 1-7, the Memory Verse being Proverbs 17:22. "A cheerful heart is a good medicine.")

Our lesson may be divided into three parts according to the three references, one from Acts, two from 1 Peter, and the final and longest part taken from Revelation.

The story related in Acts tells of Paul and Silas in Philippi, in Northern Greece, really in Macedonia, a Roman colony. Philippi is called "the chief city of that part of Macedonia." On the Sabbath the men went to the river-side where they converted Lydia, then, as they were going to prayer, they met a girl who was possessed with a spirit of divination, whereby she was purported to tell the future. She was a slave and her masters made a great deal of money by her supposed prophecies.

This girl followed the two apostles about crying, "These men are the servants of the most high God, which shew unto us the way of salvation." The two men stood it for awhile, several days, in fact, and then Paul turned and commanded the evil spirit that possessed her to come out of her, which it did.

When her masters saw this, they knew their "easy money" was gone, and becoming angry they seized Paul and Silas and hurried them to the marketplace where the magistrates (two in number) were holding sessions in the town hall. The men said the apostles were disloyal to the Roman government and were Jews who "teach customs which are not lawful for us to receive, being Romans."

Apostles Beaten And Jailed

The magistrates evidently did not give the two apostles a chance to defend themselves, especially as the people generally were against them, so they ordered them to be stripped, beaten and thrown into prison.

The jailer put them into the inner prison and made their feet fast in the stocks. At midnight, Paul and Silas were praying and singing praises to the Lord, and the other prisoners were listening, when a great earthquake broke open the doors and loosened all the bonds. The jailer, expecting that all the prisoners intrusted to him had escaped, prepared to kill himself with his sword, but Paul cried out to him that they were all there.

Thereupon the jailer fell on his knees before them, asking how he could be saved. They said, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ." He took them to his home after that, treated their wounds and gave them food, and the household was baptized.

We have very little time or space for Peter's letter to his fellow Christians in various places, but he writes that those who were persecuted should rejoice, "inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's suffering, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify God on this behalf. Wherefore let them that suffer according to the will of God commit the keeping of their souls to Him in well doing, as unto a faithful Creator."

John Has Revelation

In this dark time of persecution under the Emperor Domitian who proclaimed emperor rule, when the little band of Christians were threatened with extinction if they would not forget their religion and accept this worship. John had his vision, called Revelation, by which the New Testament is ended. It is a magnificent picture, or succession of them, which he portrayed, one from which we have no space to quote at length. It is a prophesy of the overthrow of the Roman empire. The sacred number seven is used throughout the imagery. Seven golden candlesticks, seven stars, the candlesticks representing the seven churches. He heard a great voice as of a trumpet, saying, "I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last," and "What thou seest, write in a book, and send it unto the seven churches."

Revelation is a difficult book to interpret and Bible scholars disagree in their interpretations. John was filled with grief and rage at the terrible persecutions, and the book is full of danger and revenge against the persecutors, and of rewards for the tribes of Israel and the Gentiles who were martyred.

Jesus is pictured as sitting on a throne in all dignity and glory, but with a two-edged sword proceeding from His mouth—a very different picture from the tender, mild Christ we know. The letters to the seven churches contain both commendation and condemnation.

"To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with Me in My throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with My Father in His throne." Christ comforted those who were in danger of giving up their lives for their faith. If there is time in class, the magnificent descriptions of the Revelation should be read aloud, or at least part of it, so the children may get a mental picture of this marvelous vision. Cost Of Heating Exceeds Income From House Unit

MEADVILLE, Pa., Dec. 11.—Government auditors have discovered it is costing $3,000 a month to heat 20 homes at the nearly deserted Keystone Ordnance Works at nearby Geneva, from which the revenue is $750. The buildings house the skeleton force left out of the thousands who turned out high explosives there during the war.

Harold Mundell, regional director of the War Assets Administration in Cleveland, said plans are being made to install a small steam boiler in place of the giant heating plant which now has to be used. The big boiler heated the entire ordnance works.

The WAA is currently trying to dispose of the homes and other ordnance property.

More Floor Action Tonight-Friday

Mt. Jackson Hi, Plaingrove Have Battles Tonight

"Mounties" Meet Evans City; Perry Vs. Grovers; Six Contests Friday Evening

The remainder of this week will see plenty of basketball action as most of the county schools engage tough foes in exhibition contests. Mr. Jackson and Plaingrove, have both scheduled rugged opponents for tonight—the "Mounties" playing host to Evans City; Plaingrove meeting Perry Township, a team that dumped them earlier.

"Fran" Webster's Mt. Jackson flippers have gained a split in two tilts thus far and will be out to annex another win tonight against the strong Butler county quint.

Friday night six more interesting tilts are on the schedule, and more fast action is promised the fans.

New Castle's Red Hurricane, successful in their debut against Youngstown East, 41-30, plays at George Washington High floor again, taking on Erie Strong Vincent, one of the northwest's most respected cage powers. The Colonels cut quite a swath through a lineup of strong foes last campaign and will be coming here with a "loaded" outfit, bent on marring the Red and Black record.

Rochester At Ellwood
Ellwood City's high-flying Wolverines, triumphant three times in as many outings, will go to the post in quest of their fourth win against the Rochester Rams at the Tuber floor. Union, Shenango and New Brighton have felt the Blue and White scoring punch this season.

Bessemer will await the invasion of Lowellville, O. and will be after its second victory, having split in two games so far.

Plaingrove gets no rest Friday as they play Princeton away, and Shenango, still seeking its initial victim of the campaign, will journey to Midland to oppose the powerful Leopards.

Rounding out the card will be the East Brook-Slippery Rock rematch at the Eagles' court. The Ruthrauff lads tore the Rockets asunder in their first meeting, 61-18, and are currently the hottest team in the county, with 140 points tallied in two frays.

To Ignore Game?

PROTESTING over ticket distribution for the Sugar Bowl game (New Orleans, Jan. 1), University of Alabama students have petitioned Harry Gilmer, star of the team, not to play unless students be given a "fair chance" to buy tickets. (International)

Pulaskis Trim Youngstown Five

Benefit Game At Union High Floor Ends 47-39; VFW Defeat Cubs In Prelim

The K. Pulaski "Big Five" made a decided hit with the Union Township basketball fans, as they put on a classy exhibition of ball handling and clever shooting, to defeat the strong Youngstown Strausbaugh Motors at the Union High court Wednesday evening in a big Union Township Fire department benefit battle. The score was 47 to 39. A large crowd attended. It was the second straight win for the Al Gonet coached and managed Pulaskis and they looked very impressive. John Zubowsky and "Flash" Wenda led the Gonetmen in scoring with 20 of the points between them. Fabian and McKenna led the Ohioans in tallying.

Come From Behind

The K.P. "Big Five" trailed the first period, 11 to 8, and at halftime 23 to 18, but put on a scoring exhibition in the third period that gave them the lead at 33 to 30 as the third period drew to a close. Continuing to pepper the hoops unmercifully in the fourth period the Pulaskis piled up a commanding lead and held it to the finish. The K.P. team outscored Youngstown in the second half, 29 to 16.

Pat Patterson, the veteran Pulaski guard, put on a great defensive exhibition all evening, being a standard in ball handling was out of this world. Cooper, Rea and Jamison also played great ball for the victors.

Vets Win Prelim

Sunday the K.P. team will play the Delta club of Rankin at the K.P. hall, it was announced.

In the preliminary game last night the Pulaski Cubs were defeated by the V.F.W. team of the City-County league, 47 to 37, with Larry Spears and Hartshorn the Vets stars and Ryejacz and S. Plonka best for the losers.

Duquesne Signs Becker As Coach

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 11.—(INS)—Duquesne university had a new assistant basketball coach today. He is Morris (Moe) Becker, former Duke cage star.

Jack Davis, athletic director, who made the announcement, said Becker was on the bench when the Dukes defeated Brigham Young U. in their opening game. Becker played forward on the famous Iron Duke team that went to the finals of the 1940 metropolitan invitation tourney in Madison Square Garden, only to lose to Colorado. During the war, Moe played several seasons for the Aberdeen proving grounds army quintet.

Tech Humbles Grovers, 54-41

Carnegie Tech opened its basketball season with an easy 54-41 win over Grove City last night. The Tartans, paced by Mike Theodore's 15 points, were in front all the way.

Frank Gustine of baseball fame made a successful debut as a basketball coach when his Waynesburg college Yellowjackets won their first game from Westinghouse Apprentice, 59-36.

Washington and Jefferson racked up their second straight basketball win of the season by overpowering St. Vincent, 63-40.

NFL Ground-Gainers In Heated Race

By LOU GARAVENTE

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 11.—(INS)—The battle for "statistics champions" figures to be equally as close as the battle for league titles according to latest figures compiled and released by the National Football League.

Just as the Chicago Bears, the Chicago Cardinals, the Philadelphia Eagles, and the Pittsburgh Steelers are neck-and-neck in the divisional races, so too are several stars virtually tied for individual honors.

In the Western Division, Tony Canadeo of the Green Bay Packers wrested the first-place spot in the ground-gaining department from Camp Wilson of the Detroit Lions and Kenny Washington of the Los Angeles Rams.

Canadeo has lugged the leather for 420 yards in 96 attempts, eight yards better than Wilson's total yardage in 89 tries. Washington is rated third with 407, but he has taken only 56 cracks for a splendid average of 7.3 yards, almost twice the other two.

In the Eastern section, Slammin' Steve Van Buren unquestionably is the champion with 912 yards in 194 carries.

Sammy Baugh and Sid Luckman, the venerable pass-masters, set a new National League record every time they cock their arms. Baugh has thrown 313 passes and completed 135 for 2,595 yards, topping all league records.

Luckman Shows Form
Luckman hasn't been idle, having chucked 299 aerials, completed 166 times for 2,505 yards. The leading pass receivers of the respective divisions are Bob Nussbaumer of the Washington Redskins and Jim Keane of the Bears who have caught 44 and 37 passes for 550 and 749 yards respectively.

The Cards, who battle the Bears for the Western title Sunday, have the league's high scorer in big Pat Harder. Harder has scored seven touchdowns, 36 extra points, and six field goals for a 96-point aggregate.

In other categories, Frank Reagan of the New York Giants assumed the role of leading punter in the Eastern division, with Indian Jack Jacobs of the Green Bay Packers holding his lead in the Western section.

Calabra Quint Tops Universals

Score 39 To 37 Win; First U. P., Epworth Fives Win In Church Loop

The up-and-coming Calabra club five handed the Universal Pottery its first setback of the season at the "Y" floor last night, 39-37, in a fast contest. Ross and "Rags" Gennock paced the winners with 10 and 12 points each. Razzano and Stewart sparked for the Pottery.

In the Church league tilts the First U. P.'s continued unbeaten by whipping the First Methodists, 41-21, with Jackson hitting the hoops for 24 markers.

In the other game the Epworths laced the Third U. P. passers, 47-32, with Carlson and Wainio showing the way.

Tonight will find the loop leaders in both the Civic-Industrial and Church leagues at each others' throats. The Shenango Pottery meets the Universals, and the First Baptists will try to make it four straight against the First U. P.

Opening tilt will find the American Legion going against the United Engineering.

Seabright Joins Steeler Cripples

First String Quarterback Has Bad Ankle, Johnny Clement Is Improving

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 11.—(INS)—The Pittsburgh Steelers had a new worry today. First string Quarterback Charley Seabright turned up with a bad ankle when the Steelers resumed practice on Wednesday morning. The ankle was X-rayed but the results are not known as yet.

Seabright, with his understudy Bill Garnaas injured, has played all but two minutes of the last two games. He hurt the ankle early in the Boston-Yank game but continued to play in spite of the injury.

Clement Improving
Among other Steeler casualties, Johnny Clement reports that he can run and pass, but his dislocated elbow is still very sore. Walt Slater, who led the way in the victory over the Yanks, said his lame leg is much better.

The Steelers are awaiting the outcome of Sunday's Eagle-Packer game to see if they will play the Eagles for the eastern title, or the winner of the western division for the NFL title.

Pitt Launches Season Friday

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 11.—(INS)—Dr. H. C. Carlson starts his 26th season as head basketball coach at the University of Pittsburgh tomorrow night, and the veteran mentor is pretty confident about the whole thing.

The Panthers open against the University of Wisconsin in Madison, Friday night, and then go through a 21-game card that includes such foes as Illinois, Purdue, Louisville, Colgate, Cornell, Penn State, Army, Ohio State and West Virginia.

But says the optimistic doctor: "If this team plays intelligently and according to plan, it may win all 21 games. If the boys play sloppy and stupid ball, it will be just another team."

Dr. Carlson has been noted for his optimism for years, but he does have a veteran squad this season that possibly could go through an unbeaten season.

Swimmers Busy At Westminster

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Dec. 11.—Titan swimming prospects were given a boost with the return of Jerry Simon to the fold. The Erie tankman was married recently and left some doubt as to whether he would rejoin the Westminster swimmers.

Meanwhile, Coach Harold Burry is prepping his charges for their opening meet on December 18 with Washington and Jefferson college in the Little President's pool.

Intra-mural basketball at Westminster has entered into full swing with Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity holding the lead in all three divisions. A strong Sig Ep "A" team won an easy win over the Sigma Nus in the first real division test.

Bosox Acquire Spence In Swap With Senators

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—(INS)—The Boston Red Sox and the Washington Senators jointly announced late Wednesday a three-player deal in which the Red Sox received Outfielder Stan Spence in exchange for Outfielder Leon Culbertson, and Rookie Second Baseman Al Kozar.

The announcement was made at the annual Major League Baseball meeting in New York.

Spence, one of the finest defensive outfielders in the league, hit .279 last season. He broke into the major leagues with Boston in 1940.

Culbertson, who has been with the Red Sox the past five years, after moving up from the Red Sox Louisville farm club, drifted between third and the outfield the past two seasons, and hit .238 in 1947.

Kozar, who has never played in the majors, had a fine season with New Orleans of the Southern Association in 47 hitting for an average of .340.

Clarence Bessanson converted the 4-6 twice in the same game while bowling in the Servicemen's Dairy league in Detroit.

PHILLY PASSERS DELAYED BY STORM

Basketball fans at the Arena were disappointed last night when the Philadelphia Giants, failed to arrive here, getting as far as Somerset, Pa., and being forced to give up the New Castle trip as a result of a heavy snowstorm. The Canton Cushites were here ready to play.

In the first game last night the Eagles Club defeated the Johnson Bronze team in a city-county league game, 33 to 27.

ELKS PREPPING FOR GREENVILLE

Coach Paul Morrison's Elks club quint is eagerly awaiting the invasion of the Greenville Moose team here Saturday night. The game will be staged at the George Washington high school floor and will be preceded by a prelude between the reserve outfits of both organizations.

Having at last hit the victory trail after dropping three straight, the Elks face a tough foe—one that split two games with them during the 1946-47 season.

EELS WALLOP LIONS
Paced by "Big Cat" Conti, the Slippery Elks walked easily over the E. S. Lions by a score of 61 to 5. "Cat" Conti had 36 of his team's points. The Lions didn't score a point in the second half, scoring all of their points in the first quarter. The Elks are in the Recreation league and they expect to give a lot of trouble for some of the teams in the league.

Titans Prepare To Invade Tech

Westminster Squad In Good Shape For Pittsburgh Game Saturday

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Dec. 11.—Coach Grover C. Washabaugh will put his Westminster Titans through stiff drills for the remainder of the week in preparation for their Saturday night invasion of Pittsburgh when the Titans tackle Carnegie Tech.

Washabaugh was anything but pleased at the manner in which the Titans disposed of Slippery Rock last Saturday. Although the outcome was never in doubt, the taller Titans never came up to the performance expected.

The Titan mentor used every member of the 14-man squad in scoring the one-sided win. Only sturdy floor work by Tom Jones saved what otherwise was a very dull game.

The Westminsterites know they will be judged closely on their first Pittsburgh appearance, and they are hopeful of making a favorable impression.

Westminster came out of the Slippery Rock game in top physical condition, and with the exception of Bill Paul, reserve guard, all are in top shape. Paul was taken ill shortly before the Slippery Rock encounter and sat the game out on the bench.

Umpires Will Meet Friday

Lawrence County Umpires Association will hold an important meeting at the "Y" at 7:30 o'clock Friday night, it was announced by Acting President Anthony Priscaro. The meeting is for the purpose of electing new officers and winding up the 1947 business. Plans for the 1948 season will be made at the meeting. All members are to attend.

FAIR or FOUL

By LAWTON CARVER (INS Sports Editor)

By LAWTON CARVER
(International News Service Sports Writer)
NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—Harry Voiler, the Miami hotel man and fight promoter, reiterated today that he is prepared to put a Joe Louis-Jersey Joe Walcott return match next summer and said there was no reason why he shouldn't.

Voiler said again that he had an agreement for the services of Walcott, that the 20th Century Sporting Club no longer has a hold on Louis and that any one of the three New York ball parks is available to any promoter who can lay the chips on the line.

Really Incensed
Voiler arrived in New York from Philadelphia incensed over the seemingly widespread belief that neither he nor anybody else could take the Louis-Walcott rematch away from the 20th Century Sporting Club.

Voiler said: "Madison Square Garden (the seat of the 20th Century's boxing operations) has had a strangle hold on boxing long enough. It is time somebody else took over, and I think the public would welcome a change."

"I have as good a chance as anybody to land this next match. They are going to fight for money and if I can pay them more than somebody else they will fight for me. Anyway, I've got Walcott and I'm prepared to guarantee Louis $400,000, like I said before."

Will Stage Battle
While Voiler was thus reaffirming his determination to make a tussle for landing the big mid-summer bout the payoff on last Friday night's engagement was being studied by financial experts who wondered why people fight for a living.

Last Friday night's fight, for instance, drew $216,497, which sounds like a ton of money and it probably is, but by the time it is cut up one way and another a fellow is lucky to keep out of hock.

Uncle Sam Gets His
After the federal and state income taxes were paid the balance, or net amount, was $168,819.

Louis' end of the swag came to $77,580 and Walcott received $25,860.

Taking training expenses for each fighter out of those purses and then cut the remainder up among various handlers and pay personal income taxes.

After all that, Louis would be lucky to wind up with $15,000 and Walcott with $5,000.

Louis Favorite
And while these figures were being released and Voiler was talking about a June promotion the price-makers started getting busy and revealed that Louis has been established as an early 2½ to 1 favorite in the return match.

That would seem to indicate that despite the clamor among those who thought Walcott won the other night, the gamblers are not convinced.

And don't get the notion that they make their prices out of sentiment. They're not kidding. They really think Louis will beat Walcott the next time around.
PS—So do I, if anybody is interested.

Local Officers Seeking Marine Corps Reserves

The assignment of Capt. Robert W. McClurg, 224 Englewood avenue, William J. Wallace, 234 Pearson street, and Lt. Warren E. Morgan, 2301 Delaware avenue, as Marine Reserve recruiting officers has been announced in Philadelphia by Lt. Col. E. O. Price, director of USMC reserve activities in Pennsylvania, Delaware and southern New Jersey.

These officers ask that veterans of any branch of the service, and non-veterans between the ages of 17 and 32, who are interested in becoming Marine reservists, contact them at their home for full information.

No physical examinations are required, no demand is made upon a member's time, and although enrollment periods are for one, two and three years, it is the peacetime policy of the Marine Corps to accept resignations at any time.
